DIVORCE COURT

Case of Ross vs. Ross on Trial Today

The superior court, without jury, Judge Sanderson presiding, took up the contested divorce cases, and the first heard was that of Ross vs. Ross, a Newburyport case which was on trial all day Wednesday.

In this case the libellant declares that the libellee was guilty of confirmed habits of intoxication and another statutory offense, while on the other hand the libellee replies that the libellant was guilty of cruelty, and of a statutory offense and she asks that she be granted the divorce, and also asks for alimony from the libellant.

William H. Ducey was the first witness heard this morning, and he testified that he worked in a shoe factory in Newburyport with the libellant. Mr. Ross was an inspector of his work. He testified in favor of Mrs. Ross, and under direct examination he said that on several occasions he had seen Mr. Ross with a woman other than his wife. He also had seen him at Ipswich with a woman in a hotel, and Mr. Ross had asked him not to tell Mrs. Ross anything about the matter. He had seen Mr. Ross under the influence of liquor on several occasions he had purchased liquor from Mr. Ross on two occasions he bought several pints of wine.

Under cross examination he stoutly denied that he had ever taken Mrs. Ross to the theatre. He said he had roomed at the Ross house for three years, and he denied that he had ever seen Mrs. Ross under the influence of liquor. He had never seen her on the street with other men. He had seen her coming from the theatre about 10:30 o'clock in the evening, but he did not walk home with her. Mr. Ross showed him on two occasions two bank books, which called for $1000.

Mrs. Ross testified that she lived in Newburyport, and up until the time that the Rosses had separated she lived next door to them.

For more than five years Mrs. Ross had visited her in the morning and sometimes in the afternoon and occasionally at night. Once in a while she and Mr. Ross went to the theatre, and the witness said on all these visits Mrs. Ross was perfectly sober; she had never taken a drink in the presence of the witness. Under cross-examination she said that so far as she knew Mr. Ross was a good provider. She knew Mrs. Ross had been away from home several nights but she did not know where she had gone. After some evidence in rebuttal the case was taken under advisement by the court.

The Merrill Case

In the superior court Wednesday, John C. Leggett appeared in behalf of his client, Charles A. Merrill, in relation to Mr. Merrill's second suit against the officers of the Law and Order league. Mr. Leggett said that when the suit for conversion of property was called last week it was understood that the other suit, which is for salary claimed by Mr. Merrill from the league, would be abandoned, the parties consenting to accept judgment rendered in the lower court. Since the trial, he said, James F. Owens, counsel for the league officers, has been unable to bring his clients to an agreement, and the case was therefore in order. Mr. Owens, however, was engaged in the criminal session in Cambridge, and the case will be held open until later.

CAN SPEAK NOW

Blow on Head Made Pritz Dumb

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 26.—Able to speak after two months' silence, Monroe Pritz told cheerfully, yesterday, for the first time, of the assault which, resulting in a fracture of his skull, made him dumb.

A man, he said, struck him with a billiard cue in a roadhouse south of east St. Louis.

The man was angry because Pritz acted as a peacemaker in a fight. There was no witness to the encounter, and Pritz's friends, finding him unable to tell them anything about the occurrence, were at a loss to account for his injury.

Tuesday a trepanning operation was performed at the city hospital here, which at once relieved the pressure on the brain and restored the power of speech.

ALLEGED GAMBLING

Case Heard Before Judge Hadley This Morning

The case of Anastasios Houzeas, charged with keeping a gaming house at 193 Market street, was heard before Judge Hadley in police court this morning.

This case came as the result of a raid made by the police early Sunday morning when 15 foreigners were gathered in and sent to the police station.

In the raiding party were Sergts. Atkinson and Duncan, Inspectors Dwyer and Grady and Patrolman Kieran. Houzeas was charged with conducting a gaming house while 14 others were charged with being present at a game. The names of those who it is alleged were present, follow: Kostas Gloridas, Peter Gorgias, Nicholas Regakos, Louis Paraskopoulos, Anastasios Skaekes, Peter Genepoulos, Zrevoevos Skakas, Soterios Jallas, George Koulros, Nicholas Demerikas, George Zelnkos, James Kapelos, John Goukos and Peter Sundares.

Contrary to the general rule the defendants when arraigned in court Monday morning entered pleas of not guilty and asked for a continuance till this morning, which was granted.

Daniel J. Donahue appeared for 13 of the defendants, while J. Joseph Hennessy appeared for the other two.

The first witness called was Sergt. Thomas R. Atkinson who testified that he in company with Sergt. Duncan had had the house in question under observation for some time. Early Saturday night witness said he saw about 20 men in one room, and of that number 17 were around a table. He said that he was looking through a window in the rear of the building and saw a game of cards being played, also saw money passed and saw a man marking on a slate. The slate was produced.

Sergt. Alexander Duncan corroborated the testimony offered by the preceding witness.

Inspector Philip Dwyer testified that a week before he saw conditions which were practically the same as those testified to relative to Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Patrolman Kieran testified to seeing men gathered around the table.

On Larceny Charge

Herbert L. Quimby, a young man, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in the police court this morning on a complaint charging him with the larceny of a pair of shoes from a "Wolf Greenberg," who conducts a second hand clothing store in Middlesex street. The hearing of the case resulted in a very pathetic scene when the young and pretty wife of the defendant pleaded with the court to give her husband another chance. The recitation of her story of ill luck to the court brought tears to the eyes of more than one person in the court room.

According to the testimony offered, Quimby entered the second hand store in question and after trying on the shoes ran out of the store without paying for them.

Mrs. Quimby told the court that her husband was a hard and willing worker, but that of late he had been unfortunate and was unable to secure employment. When finally he secured a place, or rather was promised employment, he had no shoes to wear and went to the store in Middlesex street and stole the shoes in order to have something to cover his feet.

She told the court that he was a good husband, always giving her his pay. She also said that he had not discouraged lately, because she was not in good health and had to visit a physician three times a week.

It was also brought out during the course of the testimony that Greenberg offered to sell the shoes to Quimby for 80 cents, but when Mrs. Quimby tried to settle the matter Wednesday night he wanted $1 and this morning in court he wanted $1.25.

The court was evidently moved by the plea made by Mrs. Quimby and placed Quimby in the hands of the probation officer. After passing sentence Judge Hadley said: "Keep honest and be respectable. If you ever need a pair of shoes don't go out and do a dishonest act, come to me and I will see that you get a pair of shoes."

A young man under the influence of drink stole a turkey on Bridge street Wednesday night. He was fined $10.

With several other young men he was chased and arrested by Officer Clark. He blamed the others for the theft. John J. Krilly, charged with "being drunk," was sentenced to four months in jail. George Watson was given a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory and placed on probation.

Jas. J. McAndrews, Simon Hareza and William Mulvey were found guilty of being drunk and each was fined $5. There was one $2 drunk and nine simple drunks were released.

ALMOST A KNOCKOUT

Billy Rolfe Was Almost Put Away by Honey Melody

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—Honey Melody, the ex-champion welterweight, won a well-earned decision over Billy Rolfe in their 12-round bout at the National A. C. South Boston, last night. While the boxing during the entire bout was fast and hard enough, one of Rolfe's seconds started to make it more so after the referee had given his award.

The second did not like the decision, and, jumping into the ring, he handed the referee, Harry Hodgkins, a couple of wallops. The other seconds and some friends joined in the added scrap and for several seconds it was rather lively.

That Rolfe was not defeated in a decisive manner was a surprise, for several times it looked to be about all over for him and once the bell saved him.

TAME AFFAIR

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 26.—The six-round go between Billy St. Clair of Montreal and Jack Ahearn of Boston, scheduled as the main bout in the armory last night, was very tame, neither showing any fight and not striking a hard blow. They were hissed by the crowd.

TWO FAST BOUTS

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 26.—Before a cheering crowd of 700 sports in city hall last night, Tommy Bergen of Lewiston and Kid Shea of Hallowell went two of the fastest six-round bouts seen here since last winter. Part of it was of the whirlwind order. Shea had the advantage in weight and reach, but Bergen offset this in part by rapid infighting. Bergen was also in the best of condition and took punishment lightly. After a short interval, in which Kid Springer and Kid Albert of Augusta went six rounds in the semi-finals, Shea and Bergen again tried conclusions. Bergen carrying the fighting to Shea every moment, Shea recovering with difficulty. In the fifth round of the second bout Shea was on the verge of going out, saving himself only by opportune clinching. Shea was twice knocked down in the last round.

PERRON A CHOPPING BLOCK
LAWRENCE, Nov. 26.—Frank Perron of Pawtucket proved a chopping block for "Fighting Dick" Nelson last night at the Unity Cycle club before a full attendance of members. The bout went the entire 12 rounds. Perron seemed to rely on right and left swings, which Nelson had no trouble in ducking.

BOSTON BOXER LED
PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 26.—There was a good bout of six rounds at the Pastime club last night between Ollie Kallack of Shirley, Me., and Young Jack Johnson of Boston. The colored boy had the better of the argument for five rounds, but in the last one Kallack did practically all the aggressive work.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Frank Gotch failed to gain a single fall last night from Zybsoo, the giant Pole, within an hour, and thereby lost the match, the conditions of which required Gotch to win two falls within the hour. The Pole displayed great strength and an excellent knowledge of wrestling.

TWO LIVES LOST

By the Capsizing of a Boat

COTUIT, Nov. 26.—A sudden squall lashed the sheltered waters of Cotuit harbor into fury yesterday, capsizing a boat in which were Robert Doteridge and Llewellyn Wright, 16 and 15 years of age, respectively, both of whom were drowned. Young Wright was caught under the boat and had no opportunity to escape. His body was found there late yesterday, but the body of Doteridge had not been recovered up to last night.

CHELMSFORD

The annual Thanksgiving ball at Chelmsford Centre which has been held for 30 years drew 100 couples to the town hall, last evening despite the inclement weather.

Hibbard's orchestra furnished music for the well arranged dance order of 20 numbers and gave a short concert program before the dancing began. Ice cream, cake and coffee were served in the lower hall at intermission.

William H. Hall was floor director, assisted by Edward B. Emerson, Ervin W. Sweetser, William Adams, Alvin H. Fletcher, Richard Davis.

PRESENTATION TO AN OVERSEER
Mr. James Garvin, overseer of weaving at the Boot mills, who has resigned to accept a better position at Augusta, Me., was surprised by his help Wednesday evening at bedtime, when they all gathered around him and presented him a beautiful gold watch and chain, a pin, set with diamonds and rubies, and a purse of money. Although taken by surprise, he managed to express his appreciation of this mark of esteem and his thanks for the elegant presents. The presentation was made by Mr. Myron E. Ober, one of the second hands of the department. Mr. Garvin leaves Lowell with the best wishes of all for his success in his new position.

TEXTILE NOTES

Interesting Items From Mill Centers

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 26.—The Union Water Power company has purchased the water power at Clark's Rip, about eight miles above this city. It is understood that a large amount of land has been bought, so that the work of making improvements will not be hampered in any way, and that a new and modern dam is to be erected in the near future, and a first-class electric power station installed. The latter plant will probably be equipped to develop about 11,000 horse power and industrial plants of the city. Several months ago a report was circulated that a large new textile mill was to be built in Lewiston and the purchase of this water power will probably result in its construction.

ADDITION TO WONALANET CO.
NASHUA, N. H., Nov. 26.—Two sections of the new mill now under construction by the Wonalanet Co., have been finished to such an extent that they are now being used as a storehouse by the company. The stone foundation was completed some time ago, while the brick work which surmounts the foundation is more than half finished.

RUSHING WINDOOSKI PLANT
WINDOOSKI, Vt., Nov. 26.—Work on the foundation of the new yarn mill to be built by the American Woolen Co. is progressing rapidly under a large force of men. A coffer dam is being erected preparatory to building a cement river wall, which will be 375 feet long. The mill, it is estimated will cost $300,000 and employ 300 hands.

ALICE MILL ORGANIZED
BASILEY, S. C., Nov. 25.—The Alice mill has organized with E. H. Shanklin as president and treasurer. Mr. Shanklin is superintendent of the Easy cotton mill, and is one of the incorporators of the Alice mill, which is capitalized at $250,000. He will order plans and specifications for buildings, steam power equipment, 10,000 spindles, 200 looms and other machinery. The product will be convertible sheeting. It is understood that construction will not begin until next spring.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

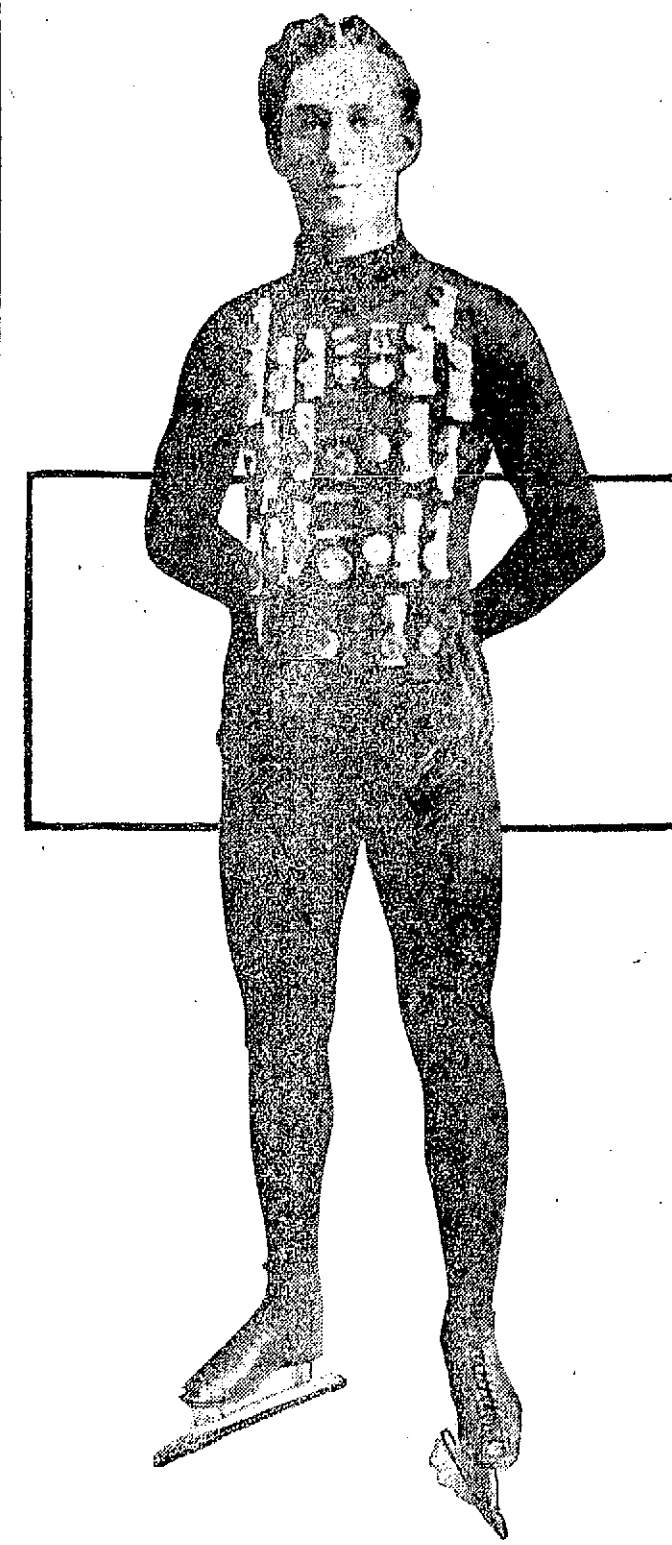

The Moore Spinning Cricket club held its fifth annual dance in the town hall, Thanksgiving eve with a large attendance despite the inclement weather. During the early evening a delightful concert was given by Hibbard's orchestra of eight pieces. At 9 o'clock the dance was on and at 10:30 intermission was taken during which refreshments were served in the lower hall. The pleasant affair concluded at 10 o'clock and a special electric car took the Lowell guests back to the city.

Those in charge of the affair were: General manager, Samuel Olney; assistant, A. Nelson; floor director, Walter B. Metcalfe; assistant, Joseph Hoyle; chief aid, J. McNichols; aids, Albert Stophard, John Robbins, Harry Moncton, A. Burlinson, Albert B. Metcalfe, Arthur Miller, Harry Davis, John O'Connell and John Curry.

ED LAMY, SENSATIONAL SKATER, DECLARED A PROFESSIONAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—If the plans of the promoters do not fail, it looks as if indoor ice skating will be given greater impetus this winter than has been the case in several years. Many amateur and professional races have been scheduled to be held in Cleveland, Pittsburgh, St. Paul, Boston, Chicago and New York. While the exact dates for the different events have not as yet been promulgated, one of the leading promoters recently intimated that the first big amateur race would be held in New York the first week in December. Clarence Granger has been declared amateur speed skater of America by the Eastern Amateur Skating association. This displaces young Edmund Lamy, the speed marvel of Saranac Lake, N. Y., who henceforth is to be classed as a professional. Granger finished second to Lamy in most of the important races of last winter at Cleveland, O.; Pittsburgh, and Newburg, N. Y., the International Skating association first took a stand against Lamy's amateurism, and the Eastern association followed suit. Granger is now the national champion in the one and a half miles and two and a half miles as well as international champion at five miles. Lamy, it is said, will race against all the big fellows this winter, both out and indoors.

GLADSTONE CLUB

BOUNTS POSTPONED UNTIL DECEMBER 7

The bouts which were scheduled to be given before the members of the Gladstone Athletic club at the regular meeting at Associate Hall tonight have been called off. Because of the death of his father, Jimmy Moriarty, who was to appear in the main bout against Kid Wright of Lawrence, could not go on, and rather than put on a second-rater as a substitute, the management decided to postpone the bouts until December 7, when a first class show will be given. Word was also received at the last moment from Furry, who was scheduled to take part in the semi-final announcing that he had suffered a fracture of the left hand and would be unable to appear. The officers of the club state that the best to be had will be secured for the meeting on Dec. 7.

U. S. BUNTING

BANQUET HELD BY THE CRICKET CLUB

The members of the U. S. Bunting Cricket and Athletic association enjoyed an old fashioned potato pie banquet Wednesday night at the clubhouse in So. Lowell. There were 200 present and despite the inclement weather the affair proved to be a great success.

The feature of the evening was the presentation of a life size picture of "Uncle Joe" to Joseph Senior, who for six years has held the position of treasurer of the club. The presentation was made by President Sam Dean, and Mr. Senior responded fittingly, although the affair was a distinct surprise to him.

Remarks of congratulation were made by former-President Robertshaw and Treasurer Humphreys. The committee to which credit for the affair must be given was: A. G. Humphreys, J. W. Foster and Robert Cadworth. During the evening songs were sung by Wm. Dingley, J. Wilkinson, Fred Battye and Norman Atkinson.

Ludwig, Miss Gladys Symons, Miss Madeline Sanborn and Miss Eleanor M. Clifford.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Traditions of the Festival Duly Honored in Lowell

Special Services in the Churches—The Weather Prevented Outdoor Enjoyment but Theatres and Dance Halls Were Crowded

Thanksgiving Day was observed very quietly in Lowell, the traditions of the festival being duly honored. Atmospherically there wasn't much to be thankful for except that it was no worse, while some shoe dealers who had promised their help a rest on Thanksgiving day were busied selling rubbers by the dozen and no questions asked as to price.

Outdoor sports which form a considerable part of the holiday program in Lowell as elsewhere were tabooed on account of the weather, but indoors all was merriment and good cheer.

Special services were held in all the churches. In the Catholic churches in accordance with a time honored custom, different societies in the height of their thankfulness remembered the dead, and requiem masses for deceased members were sung as were masses of thanksgiving.

In the orphanages, the jail and city farm the inmates were treated to special dinners, mostly turkey, followed by entertainments in the evening and if happiness didn't find its way into the hearts of the unfortunate within their walls it was not the fault of those who are entrusted with their care.

While Thanksgiving day is an "Old Home" day all over New England and many visitors came here for the holiday, hundreds of Lowell people went out of town for the holiday and the depot was the scene of great activity from early morning until late at night. Many Lowell people went to Boston at noon took their dinner in a hotel and attended the theatres in the afternoon, while others were the guests of friends out of town. The trains were delayed somewhat on account of the storm in the north while the returning trains, last evening made only short stops on account of the unreliability of the block signal system which was seriously interfered with on account of the weather.

Almost into the city of Boston snow could be seen along the line of the railroad from Lowell, but in Boston there was no sign of it, rain and hail having fallen the night previous, but no snow.

In Catholic Churches

Special services were held in all the Catholic churches of the city yesterday morning with large attendances.

At the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of thanksgiving was sung by Rev. Geo. J. Nolan, O. M. I., assisted by Denis A. Sullivan, O. M. I., deacon; Rev. John P. Flynn, O. M. I., sub-deacon. Mr. John Allen was master of ceremonies. The music of the mass was given by the regular choir under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Walker, who also presided at the organ. The attendance was large.

At the Sacred Heart church high mass of requiem for the deceased members of the Holy Name society at 8 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. I., officiated, and the choir was under the direction of Mrs. Adelaide Muldoon. The members of the society attended in a body.

At St. Peter's church at 8 o'clock Rev. Dr. Kelleher, pastor, sang high mass of requiem for the deceased members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. H. James E. Donnelly directed the choir. The members of the Ladies' auxiliary were in attendance.

At St. Patrick's church two masses for special intentions were sung. The first was at 8 o'clock, for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the Holy Name society, and the celebrant was Rev. John J. McHugh. At 10 o'clock a mass was celebrated for the dead members of the Clan-na-Gael association. Rev. Joseph Curtin being the celebrant. The members of those organizations were in attendance.

At St. Michael's church a mass for the repose of the souls of the dead members of the Holy Name society was celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. John J. Shaw, the pastor. The new sanctuary choir of the church, of forty voices, made its first appearance. Jas. A. Murphy was the director.

Two masses were celebrated at St. Anthony's church. The first was at 7 o'clock, and Rev. Fr. Perrot was the celebrant. The second was at 7:30 o'clock, the celebrant being Rev. Joachim V. Rosa, the pastor.

Union Baptist Service

The Protestant churches of all denominations observed the day with special services.

The churches representing the Baptist denomination united in a Thanksgiving day service at 10:30, in the new Calvary church in the Highlands. The clergymen taking part were Rev. Asa Reed, D.D. of Calvary church, Rev. S. W. Cummings of the First church, Rev. A. F. Wedge of Worthen Street church, Rev. Forester A. Macdonald of the Fifth Street, Rev. J. C. Wilson of the Chelmsford Street Free Baptist and Rev. C. H. Ellis of Chelmsford Centre.

There was music by a quartet composed of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Benson and Messrs. Masson and Hardy, and congregational singing of the familiar Thanksgiving hymns and "America." The offering was for a ministry to the sick in the Lowell General hospital. The sermon was preached by Rev. Forester A. Macdonald. His text was from Acts 24th chapter, verse 16th verse: "A conscience void of offence toward God and men." The central thought of the sermon was the awakening of a universal conscience, based on the standard set by Paul, as recognizing first duty toward God, and resulting from that consciousness, a consciousness of duty toward all mankind.

At the Elliot Congregational church a union service of the Congregational churches was held at 10:30 a. m. The preacher was Rev. A. F. Dunneels and his subject was "And Be Ye Thankful."

The Methodists held a union service at the Worthen Street Methodist church with a large attendance.

The services opened with an organ prelude, followed by a hymn by the congregation. This was read by Rev. J. T. Carleton, pastor of the Central M. E. church. Prayer was offered by the Swedish M. E. church. Mrs. Charles A. Whitte sang a number, and the Thanksgiving proclamation was read by Rev. N. W. Matthews, pastor of the Gorham Street Methodist church. The chorus choir gave a selection and there was responsive reading by Rev. N. W. Whitte, pastor of the Central M. E. church. The hymn was read by Rev. George B. Dean, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, and the scripture readings were by Rev. J. T. Carleton, pastor of the Lawrence Street Methodist church.

Benediction was given by Rev. Mr. Whitte.

The sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Stephan, whose text was: "The people shall be righteous." Services were held at St. Anne's church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It consisted of full service, holy communion and a Thanksgiving sermon by Rev. A. St. John Chabre. There was a good sized congregation. The full choir was in attendance.

An entertainment was given last night in the Lawrence Street M. E. church with the following program: Piano solo, John Moss; solo, Mrs. Jas. Sanson; reading, Miss Blanche Kelley; solo, J. W. Stott; song, Miss Irene Buchanan; duet, Mrs. James Sanson and J. W. Stott; solo, Miss Vivian Cowen. The program was well received, as was also an eccentric musical sketch entitled "The Sweet Family," the cast of which was as follows: "Mr. Sweet," Mrs. T. E. Wilde; "Arminity Ann," Miss Ellen McCord; "Betsey Belindy," Mrs. John Buchanan; "Caroline Cordelia," Mrs. William Logan; "Dorothy Delilah," Mrs. W. H. McQuade; "Elizabeth Eliza," Mrs. William Bennett; "Gloria Gadaabout," Mrs. William McQuade.

An enjoyable Thanksgiving entertainment was held last evening in the Worthen Street Baptist church under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. Despite the rain a large attendance was present, and the social proved a complete success. A one act sketch entitled "Maiden Forgiven" was repeated with the same cast by which it was presented some time ago, including the Misses Lila Field, Lulu Field, Lotie Corey, Belle Sutherland, Lillie Dunn and Mrs. I. W. Goldthwaite. Piano solos were much enjoyed, and readings occupied a prominent part on the program.

With the Orphans

The children of St. Peter's orphanage enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the fixings and in the afternoon games and indoor fun were enjoyed.

At the Edison orphanage the children attended service in St. Anne's church in the morning and at noon sat down to a bountiful holiday dinner.

The children of the First, Street and Kirk Street day nurseries had their Thanksgiving dinner Wednesday, the children going to their respective homes yesterday. The tables were laden with the many good things all for the little ones. In the afternoon the children played games and had a general good time.

At the Children's Home 51 children had a fine turkey dinner with all the fixings and ice cream to boot. An entertainment program followed the feast.

With the Poor

A special dinner of roast pork and vegetables was served the inmates of the city farm. There was no entertainment.

At the Jail

Keeper Harry Shaw of the Lowell jail lived up to his reputation for using the unfortunates "right" yesterday, by serving them a fine turkey dinner. After dinner the men were allowed the freedom of the corridors and a full supply of pipes and tobacco.

At the Theatres

Large audiences attended the performances at the Opera House and Hathaway's yesterday afternoon and evening, while the picture shows were crowded all day.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Despite the inclement weather yesterday afternoon and last evening two very large audiences turned out and witnessed the performances of "East Lynne" at the Opera House. The play was well received.

"East Lynne" is one of the favorite dramas and always draws well. It is a strong emotional play and was ably interpreted by the cast yesterday. Everything required in the way of scenic equipment and accessories was well provided.

The leading roles were portrayed by capable people and they were assisted by a well trained and carefully selected company.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"

"Ten Nights in a Barroom," that grand old play, will be presented at the Opera House today and Saturday, matinee and night, by Leon W. Washburn's carefully selected company of players. No actor ever written has the heart interest of this play of olden times. No play has done the amount of good work for many helpless drunken men and women, who after a life of the so-called intemperance have witnessed the play and gone out into the world wiser and better people. Many interesting specialties are introduced during the several acts to enliven up the sombre scenes.

"UNDER THE NORTH STAR"

Commencing Monday, Nov. 29th, for three nights and Wednesday matinee, the attraction at the Opera House will be "Under the North Star," a play of unusual interest, and of which the Manchester Mirror of Nov. 17th said: "An audience of good numbers thoroughly enjoyed the presentation of 'Under the North Star' at the New Park theatre yesterday afternoon and evening. The company is well balanced and is enabled to carry out the thrilling details of the play. Miss Maxine Roseberry, who assumes the role of the Eskimo girl, is worthy of special mention. She is said to speak the Eskimo dialect with the fluency of a denizen of the North pole region, and she is also a capable actress."

In the second act Mr. Summers, the comedian of the company, shines in a Irish role, and gives the audience many a hearty laugh. The engagement here will be played at popular prices.

at popular prices.

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

"The Man on the Box" was an amusing comedy of almost farical mischance when Henry E. Dixey acted it for two seasons in New York and on tour, and it ought to be no less amusing when Wilmer Walter and a special company present it at the Opera House on Thursday, Dec. 2. The book by Harold McGrath has been widely read, and the play follows the lines of the story very closely.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

There are many bright spots on the bill at Hathaway's theatre, this week. It is, all in all, the best holiday bill ever put forward at the little play

KEPT PRISONER BY AWFUL HUMOR

Whole Body Covered and Head So Bad She Could Not Comb Hair—Sight Affected—Neighbor Begged Her to Use Cuticura—It Cooled the Itching Flesh and

BROUGHT REST, SLEEP AND A PERFECT CURE

"Words cannot express the awful skin disease I suffered with. My whole body was covered with it. My head broke out so that I could not comb my hair. For a month or more I suffered with a terrible sore throat. When I should lie down at night my eyes would stick together and I would have to bathe them before opening them each morning. I scarcely could see for my eyes had failed me from the effect of the skin disease. I tried three doctors, but they gave me no relief and then I tried all kinds of things that I thought would do me good but I could find nothing. I was a perfect prisoner with the awful humor.

"One of my neighbors begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I made up my mind to try them but not thinking that I would ever be cured. I would take a hot bath with Cuticura Soap and then apply the Cuticura Ointment. I found relief in a few days and in a month you could scarcely see a spot on my face. I felt like a new person. When I first began to use the Cuticura Remedies they cooled the itching flesh and brought me real good sleep and rest at night. I had suffered fully two years with the skin disease but now I am a well woman and in good health. I beg every skin sufferer to use the Cuticura Remedies. I cannot praise Cuticura enough because I thought that I would never get well again." Mrs. Cordelia C. Pitts, Newborn, Ga., Nov. 24 and Dec. 21, '08.

Keeping the Hair

To prevent dry, thin and falling hair, remove dandruff, allay itching and irritation and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampooes with Cuticura Soap and occasional dressings with Cuticura are usually effective when all other methods fail. Special and full directions accompany each package of Cuticura.

LOWELL'S THANKSGIVING.

Lowell has many things to be thankful for, not the least of which is the very general well being of her people. There is very little sickness in the city at the present time. Practically all who want employment can find it at reasonable wages, and there is very little destitution to be found anywhere. For all this we have reason to be thankful.

WAGES AND COST OF LIVING.

In England for some time past a downward tendency in wages has been causing as much concern to the people generally as the upward tendency in prices in this country. It differs little to the wage earner whether his wages go down or the prices of commodities go up. The result to him is practically the same when his wages are cut ten per cent, as it would be if the cost of living went up to the same extent. When the prices of commodities increase it takes a considerable time to convince the employers of labor that the rate of wages is not as great, relatively speaking, as it was before.

It is the purchasing power of the dollar that guides the wage earner as to whether his wages are as high as they should be. It is this same factor that makes the difference between the rate of wages in England and this country. A dollar in England at the present time will purchase more than twice as much as it would in this country. In England, too, the rate of wages follows the cost of living upward or downward more regularly than in this country. Prices in England are regulated by the laws of supply and demand, but here they are regulated mainly by artificial laws in which trusts, high tariffs and speculators are the chief factors.

THE IMPETUS TO FARMING.

Never perhaps in the history of this country has there been a time when there was more inducement than there is at present to engage in the farming industry. At last the farmer has the whip hand over the people of this country, and he can get almost any price he asks for his produce.

With wheat soaring over a dollar a bushel, cotton fifteen cents a pound, eggs 55 cents a dozen, beef from 30 to 50 cents a pound and other commodities proportionately high, there is certainly great inducement to turn back the stream that sets from the farms to the big cities and have men leave the factories for the farms where they can probably earn more and work under better conditions. No longer should there be any deserted farms in New England. They should be all occupied and under profitable tillage. The farmer who cannot get rich with prices such as now prevail either does not want to work or he does not know his business.

With the price of eggs so high there is great inducement to raise poultry; with beef and pork soaring there is big money to be made on raising hogs and cattle for slaughter. These are but a few of the important opportunities that invite the attention of the industrious and appeal especially to the money-making instincts of the farmer.

Here in Massachusetts the soil is usually light and friable, so that it is easily tilled under ordinary circumstances, and as a rule is highly productive. But if there be few who can pull up their stakes in the city and move to the rural districts or even to the suburbs to take up farming, let the men who reside in the city make the best of the opportunities that lie within their grasp.

It would be well for those who have land suitable for cultivation within the city's limits or even at convenient points outside the city to advertise the same in the press in order that as many as possible may be induced to take up the farming industry even in a small way to supplement some other calling.

There are thousands of men in Lowell who could make money by cultivating a tract of land in the suburbs and raising vegetables of various kinds. In this way a man with a very little capital can embark in a line of business that will benefit himself and others. If he cannot do the work himself he will always be able to find men ready to do it for moderate wages.

In this way men who work eight or nine hours a day in factory and workshop might supplement their incomes by raising a crop of vegetables that would supply their family needs during the summer and even into the winter.

OUTLOOK FOR A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The democratic party in the recent primaries showed unmistakable signs of renewed life, vigor and harmony. There was a long list of candidates, and to the credit of the voters be it said that the nominations as a whole reflect good judgment and intelligence. Seeking the nomination for mayor were five young men, any one of whom would fill the place with credit; but the people—the great majority—have chosen Mr. Meehan, and to that decision every good democrat, including even the defeated aspirants for the nomination, will say amen.

Major Crowley, James E. O'Donnell, John W. Daly and William E. Maloney are all men of character and ability, and the fact that the nomination went to Meehan will not cause any one of them to swerve in their devotion to the democratic party.

The contest for the nomination was one that enlisted the keenest interest of the voters, and as a result the ticket named reflects the will of the party, perhaps to a greater extent than any named for a number of years. That is one reason why perfect harmony will prevail and why the ticket will receive the undivided support of all true democrats.

With one or two exceptions the aldermanic ticket is made up of men who have had experience in the city council, men who stand well in the community, but the whole nine, we believe, can be implicitly relied upon to give the city honest and enlightened service if elected.

On the whole the outlook for a democratic victory in the coming city election is very encouraging and it brings the hope of better municipal government, at least for the coming year.

Rep. Meehan is not as well known throughout the city as some other men of less note. But he will make himself known before election day, and he will invite the closest scrutiny of his every official act while serving as a member of the legislature. It was because he rendered good service as a legislator that his own ward gave him such a sweeping plurality. Personally, Mr. Meehan is a man above reproach, without any bad habits and of highly exemplary character. As a college graduate and a legislator he has shown eminent ability as a keen and logical debater, a fluent speaker and a man with a level head. With such a man as candidate for mayor there can be no question about a democratic victory on election day, and, therefore, with the utmost confidence we can predict that Mr. Meehan will be the next mayor of Lowell.

How To Be Happy

Many People Would Give Thousands of Dollars if They Could Only be Happy.

Happiness is merely a habit. Some people have it by nature, others have to cultivate it. It is a pretty hard thing to do, but it can be done. It means forgetting injuries, hurts, and neglects, and to not permit our minds to dwell on anything that causes worry and sorrow; putting aside the past, and living today, with no fret about tomorrow; to believe in ultimate good and trust all things to work towards this end; forgetting ourselves and making others happy.

It's just a habit, and can be cultivated, and there is no other habit so well worth the while.

One of the greatest aids to happiness is to buy a Hallet & Davis Piano.

STORM IS OVER

Indications of Better Weather Hereabouts

Lowell people had all kinds of weather, as well as turkey, served out to them yesterday, and for the first real snow storm of the season it proved to be a corker. There was rain, snow, hail, sleet, wind and slush. First it would be one thing, then another and at another time there would be a general combination.

Thanksgiving day is a day when most people sit close to the fireside, and yesterday was certainly a good day to stay in the house.

The weather man certainly put us on the wrong track. Wednesday he said that it would rain, but predicted that it would clear late at night. Instead of clearing, however, the rain turned to snow, the wind began to blow, then there was a blinding sleet and during the night every description of weather was handed out.

Yesterday the prognosticator said that it would be clear and fair today, but once more he was off on his reckoning, at least for this locality.

To make matters worse the storm was one of those regular out and out northeasters.

Wednesday night the high overshoes and rubbers were resurrected and they felt very comfortable for the slush was penetrating and the person who did not have his shoes covered went home with wet feet. The shoe stores did a rushing business Wednesday evening for many people rather than get their feet wet by walking home invested in new footgear.

For the first time this winter the snow plows were brought out, but the nature of the storm was such that they were practically useless. With a good fall of snow the cars could have been kept on better running time, but the sleet and rain combined made the rails slippery and the cars especially on routes which led over hills could not be kept on regular time.

The cars on the Billerica line got tangled up Wednesday night and those who had occasion to use that line found that the service was anything but satisfactory. On some other lines cars were stalled so that many strangers who came here by the trolley lines were unable to get home.

Today the indications were for better weather, clear skies and colder.

Dance tonight at Associate hall.

ADMIRAL SWIFT

Urges Great Changes in Navy Yards

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The forthcoming report of the special naval board of which Rear Admiral Swift is chairman, it is declared, will submit recommendations to the secretary of the navy that will revolutionize the operation of American navy yards. It is not known definitely whether the recommendations advance the proposition for certain navy yards be abandoned, but it is generally believed that consolidation is advocated.

The officials of the navy department refused to give any idea last night what the report will be, but experts are of the opinion that consolidation will be the burden of the report, thus insuring greater economy and better results. The chief trouble with the present system is that a number of yards are incapable of caring for the new warships of the "Dreadnought" class and that only partial repairs are possible in many of the depots.

In the last congress the question of consolidation of the yards was widely discussed. It was set forth that many yards in which several ships of war could be handled at one time and given complete attention were necessary if the navy were to be a fighting force of sufficient importance to be maintained. In case of a naval engagement, it was declared, a ship limping in from the sea should be given prompt and immediate attention, so that she might be in condition to sail forth again in the shortest possible time.

The critics of the present system declared this was impossible under existing conditions and advocated a change. It is not known whether the report advocates changes in the present bureau system of the navy.

President Taft Enjoyed Turkey Dinner

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Sated with the "possum dinner" and elaborate banquets he was forced to face in his recent trip from coast to coast, President Taft sat down yesterday afternoon to a family Thanksgiving dinner. The place de residence was a turkey that was raised on a Rhode Island farm and looked almost mountainous in its proportions. Mr. Taft smiled gently when the dessert was served. He leaned back in his chair:

"Thank goodness," he sighed, happily, "I've had a dinner at which I haven't been compelled to make speeches and where no reception committee barked in the background. I've enjoyed food—real food—and I haven't had to work to get it."

The president did not have any guests at dinner. Only the members of the Taft family were present, including Mrs. Langhille, sister of Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen and the two boys had come from their schools for the occasion and will remain until after the holidays.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Calvin Demarest of Chicago, George Slosson of Chicago and George Slosson of New York were the winners of yesterday's play in the 182 ball line billiard tournament at Madison Square garden. Slosson last night proved himself the superior of the French champion, Firmin Cassagnol, defeating him in the 29th inning by a score of 300 to 251. The Frenchman was in poor form, his high run being only 40 to Slosson's 35. The New York expert showed some of the most brilliant billiards seen since the tournament began.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 26.—In a fight at the Norfolk navy yard last night witnessed by a thousand men, mostly naval officers and enlisted men Jimmy Galvin, middleweight champion of the navy, defeated Dick Phillips, welterweight champion. The fight was to have been for ten rounds, but the tearing of one of Phillips' gloves caused the bout to come to an end in the fifth. Galvin, an electrician on the battleship Indiana, outwitted Phillips, an electrician at the navy yard wireless telegraph station, by fifteen pounds. The betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Galvin and $2500 changed hands. Phillips declared he is determined to fight Galvin to a finish and arrangements have been made for the two men to meet again Christmas night.

BOSTON CAMPAIGNFitzgerald Challenges Storrow to a Joint Debate

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The campaign for the first municipal election under the new city charter in January is still in the newspaper trade but every day one or two of the candidates is before the public in either open letters or statements. Press agents are actively at work and so far the best of good feeling prevails among the contestants in the mayoralty race.

Three of the leading candidates, Mayor George Hibbard, former Mayor Fitzgerald, and James H. Storrow, the citizens candidate, attended the same church yesterday.

Mayor Hibbard was assigned a seat in the first pew and John F. Fitzgerald occupied a seat in the second. Mr. Storrow was not so conspicuous as either of his rivals.

"Well, John," said Mayor Hibbard to Fitzgerald, "I'm going to be in the first pew next year, too."

"No, you're not," said Fitzgerald. "I'm going to occupy the first pew next year."

Mayor Hibbard would not agree. "Anyway, added Hibbard, 'we'll keep Storrow in the third pew. The fight is between you and me.'"

Undaunted by the declaration of Mr. Storrow to limit campaign expenses to $10,000, Mr. Fitzgerald is out in another letter today inviting Mr. Storrow to a joint debate on municipal finances. Mr. Fitzgerald defends the custom of awarding city contracts in liquidating campaign debts against Mr. Storrow's criticism, claiming that it is of long standing and was pursued by former Mayor Nathan Matthews, who is one of Mr. Storrow's most prominent supporters.

By the first of the week all the candidates will have their campaigns well organized.

ITCHING SCALPEasy to Get Rid of by Using Parisian Sage, the Guaranteed Hair Invigorator

Just as long as you have dandruff your head will itch. It's the little microbes that are gnawing down into the hair roots. It may take a long time for these persistent pests to get down to the vital part, but when they do, they will destroy the life of the hair in a very short time.

If you want to stop itching, to scalp and drive away dandruff, you must first kill the dandruff germs or microbes.

Parisian Sage will do this. Just get a 50c bottle today; relief will come immediately, and if at the end of two weeks your itching scalp and dandruff have not disappeared, you can have your money back.

Parisian Sage is also a delightful hair tonic, and is used by refined women who desire fascinating, lustrous and luxuriant hair. BISHOP HEREFORD

Urges the House of Lords to Pass the Budget

LONDON, Nov. 26.—"If you win a victory it will be only a temporary one; if you lose, you have prejudiced the position, power, prestige and usefulness of the house of lords, which I believe every one of you honors and desires to serve as heartily as I do myself."

In this homely, candid fashion Lord Balfour of Burleigh gave the members of the house of lords last evening his opinion of the course they are pursuing with regard to the budget. He has none of the graces of oratory which Lord Rosebery possesses, but his plain downright manner is not without effect and his speech was the real event of yesterday's sitting of the upper chamber. It probably will have even greater influence than that of Lord Rosebery, because Rosebery no longer holds the confidence of any party.

The Bishop of Hereford, when interviewed later in the debate, said that while he respected the Archbishop of Canterbury's desire that the bishops abstain from voting on the measure, he obtained the right to the exercise of independent judgment. If the bishops had any function to perform it was to speak for the multitudinous poor, he said, therefore he supported the budget, which was a social welfare budget, based on sound finance. He was convinced, he declared, that the country's answer to an appeal to the ballot would be in clear English that never again shall the fundamental liberties of the people be endangered by a privileged class. He wished that the budget might be passed as a protection against the rapidly growing spirit of revolt among the democracy, which might become dangerous.

Many other of the peers spoke, but all of them along ordinary party lines. The debate was adjourned yesterday until Monday, when Viscount Morley, Lord Curzon and Lord Rothschild are expected to address the house. Lord Curzon's cold, which precluded his speaking yesterday, is better.

Rumors are current that the Conservative leaders, seeing the damaging effect that the speeches of Lords

Cromer, Rosebery and Balfour of Burleigh is likely to have on the Conservative cause in an election, are reconsidering their position with regard to the budget. But the best information indicates that Lord Lansdowne's resolution against the adoption of the budget will go to a division and be carried by an enormous majority.

A great pro-budget demonstration took place last night in Parliament square and that locality. Six thousand persons gathered for the demonstration and sang political songs and cheered for David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer. Police to the number of 1500 were employed in keeping order, but finally the crowd became unmanageable and they cleared the square. There were some slight scuffles and several arrests were made. The demonstration is likely to be repeated on a larger scale Monday and Tuesday.

WRECKAGE SIGHTED

Believed That Two Vessels Were Wrecked off Cape Ann

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—Possible loss of life in the wrecking of one, and may be two, coastwise sailing vessels, and the narrow escape of the German freight steamer Aragonia from destruction on the rocks skirting Cape Ann were reported here yesterday by the small fleet of steamers which arrived after long detentions outside by the Storm King. Both the Aragonia which arrived from Asiatic ports, and the Bostonian, from Manchester, reported sighting wreckage off the coast, in the vicinity of Cape Ann. The vessel may have been a victim of the northeast storm of the last several days.

Officers of the Aragonia told a tale of stormy incidents on the voyage across the Atlantic, which nearly terminated on the rocks off Cape Ann. A heavy gale of fog struck the coast Wednesday morning, which, with an unusually strong northerly current made navigation hazardous. The current carried the Aragonia 35 miles off her course and the fog prevented exact ascertaining of position until she was but two lengths from the rocks. She was backed off barely in time.

Captain Parry of the Bostonian, from Manchester, Eng., gives the location of the wreckage which he sighted as latitude 42.40, north; longitude 67.18, west, just off Cape Ann. It appeared to be that of a coastwise vessel. No signs of life were visible.

THE SLAVE TRADE

Col. Wyllie Denounces Stories Concerning It

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The widespread allegations of deplorable conditions in Portuguese East Africa, particularly in the islands of San Thome

and Principe, credited by recent English and American writers to the existence of a cruel slave trade in African negroes among the planters, were denounced yesterday by Col. J. A. Wyllie, fellow of the Royal Geographical society of England, who arrived in the steamer Teutonic from Southampton and Cherbourg, after a two months' investigation of conditions in Portuguese East Africa.

Col. Wyllie spent the month of last August on the islands of San Thome and Principe. He said he found a spirit of friendliness for freedom between the white man and the black. "The African condition is being gradually improved as a laborer for the Portuguese in contrast with his home environment in Central Africa," said Col. Wyllie.

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY

New Discovery Has Revolutionized the Treatment of Skin Diseases

Nothing in the history of medicine has ever approached the success of the marvelous skin remedy, known as poslam, which, it is safe to say, has cured more cases of eczema and skin diseases than any remedy ever offered for these ills.

The success of poslam is not at all surprising when it is considered that even a very small quantity applied to the skin stops itching immediately and cures chronic cases in two weeks. The very worst cases of eczema, as well as acne, herpes, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, crusts, humors, scaly scalp and every form of itch, yield to it readily. Eruptions such as pimples, red noses, muddy and inflamed skin disappear almost immediately when poslam is applied, the complexion being cleared overnight.

Every druggist keeps both the 50 cent size (for minor troubles) and the $2 jar, and either of these may be obtained in Lowell at Falls & Burkinshaw's and Carter & Sherburne's, as well as other reliable drug stores. But no one is even asked to purchase poslam without first obtaining an experimental package which will be sent by mail, free of charge, upon request by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

REP. DE ARMOND

Was Buried at Butler, Mo., Today

BUTLER, Mo., Nov. 26.—Hundreds of prominent public men of Missouri and many outside the state joined the citizens of Butler today in paying respect to the memory of Congressman David A. De Armond, who was burned to death here last Tuesday in a fire that destroyed his home. Congressman De Armond died in a vain effort to save the life of his favorite grandson, David A. De Armond, 3rd. The bodies of both victims were buried in the local cemetery in one casket following simple services at the Methodist Episcopal church, where the late congressman had been a member. The burial services were in charge of the Masons.

No such honor and show of affection for a departed citizen has been displayed in Missouri in many years. The coffin was banked high with floral emblems and the little church was crowded. Mourners literally blocked the streets leading to the church and hundreds followed the bodies to the cemetery and stood about the grave.

Among the mourners, members of the family of the late congressman, who had come from a distance, were Edward H. De Armond, a son of the deceased, who is an instructor at West Point, and two brothers, William De Armond of Chicago and James De Armond of Davenport, Ia.

The only missing member of the family was Lieut. George De Armond, another son, now serving with the army in the Philippines.

Other distinguished mourners besides the members of the congressional committee were Speaker Cannon, Gov. Hadley of Missouri and U. S. Senators Warner and Stone.

One of the active pall bearers was Rep. Jones of Warsaw, Va. Representatives De Armond and Jones entered congress at the same time and for years they had been intimate friends.

KILLED BY FALL

Lewiston Man's Neck Was Broken

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 26.—Aubrey G. Lothrop was instantly killed at about 12.30 o'clock yesterday morning by falling down the stairs of Tracy block on Lisbon street, the fall breaking his neck.

Bonnie Parent, who, with some other young men, was in a room on the third floor, heard a heavy fall in the hall, and going out with John Casey they found Mr. Lothrop lying in a heap at the foot of the stairs, bleeding profusely from the ears and nose.

The police were at once notified, and he was taken into the guard room at the police station and physicians summoned.

Although it is thought that Mr. Lothrop was alive when he was taken into the guard room, he died almost immediately. An examination disclosed that the neck was broken between the first and second vertebrae, causing an internal hemorrhage.

There was a slight abrasion over the right ear and a smaller one over the left ear, caused by his hat being crushed down over his head.

LOSS IS $10,000

Fire in Newton Caused Heavy Damage

NEWTON, Nov. 26.—While the family were away on a Thanksgiving visit flames which broke out shortly before midnight completely gutted the large residence of Winslow C. Pierce, a coal merchant having offices at 43 Kilby street, Boston, at an early hour this morning.

The house is situated at the corner of Hunnewell avenue and Copley street. The origin of the fire is unknown, the blaze being discovered by a passerby who rang in an alarm summoning the department to the scene.

The firemen were successful in preventing the spreading of the flames to nearby residences, the safety of which was at first thought to be menaced, causing considerable apprehension, as the Pierce dwelling is located in a fashionable residential district. The loss in house and contents will be upward of $10,000.

WOMAN A SUICIDE

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The shallow waters of the little lake in the public garden were chosen by Annie Holden, a hotel domestic, in which to commit suicide. The body was recovered today by the police, some of whom waded almost to the spot. The young woman left a note saying that she was involved in financial difficulty and intended to take her life. After discarding some of her outer clothing she waded fifty or sixty feet out into the center of the pond and drowned herself in three feet of water.

BELGIUM COUNT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—An old-fashioned Maryland Thanksgiving feast was enjoyed yesterday by the Belgian minister, Count De Bussere.

This good luck befel him in a peculiar way, and the story of it is now going the rounds of the diplomatic circles.

The count was out with the Chevy Chase hunt. A fox had been started and the going was fast. The count became separated from the rest of the field. His course lay over a fence. At first the count thought it did but his horse had other plans. Reaching the fence the horse refused it but the count kept going. The horse then galloped off.

The count looked about him. It was lonely. But off in the distance was an imposing farmhouse. After a weary plod the count arrived and found the family about to sit down to dinner. Nothing would do but that he should join them. He did so and who had threatened to be a misadventure proved a most enjoyable treat. His content was complete when returning to the city he found his horse had been caught and was safely stabled.

BANK OFFICIAL

WORCESTER, Nov. 26.—That the American colleges are one hundred years behind the times in fitting young men for business life, was the theme made today by Vice-President James Cannon of the Fourth National Bank of New York in an address before the Massachusetts Teachers' association. Mr. Cannon said that there was a surprisingly lack of business training to enable young men to meet the business conditions of this country. He advocated strongly an immediate change in the college curriculum to meet modern demands.

Y.M.C.A. BUILDING

Work of Raising Fund Opens Tonight

The campaign for a fund of $150,000 for the erection of a new home for the Young Men's Christian Association will open tonight at 5.45 o'clock when the members of the various committees will gather in Prescott hall in the Runnels building.

A reception will be held between 5.45 and 6.15 o'clock after which a dinner will be held and that will be followed by speeches and the discussion of the last detail for the beginning of the work tomorrow morning.

The principal guest of the evening will be President Lucius Tuttle, of the Boston & Maine railroad, who will speak as will Frank A. Day, of the banking firm of H. J. Day & Co. of Boston.

Mr. Charles E. Ward, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who is noted as a hustler in raising funds in different cities for new buildings for the Y. M. C. A., is scheduled as one of the speakers, and in all probability he will be one of the most interesting speakers present, for it remains for him to explain in detail the method for raising the money. It was Mr. Ward who was instrumental in raising the $300,000 fund for the building in Boston, and while he is also handling the Lowell fund he will do so in conjunction with a similar enterprise to raise money for a building in Lawrence.

Frank E. Dunbar will act as toastmaster and it is understood that during the course of the banquet quite a large sum of money will be pledged. The large clock which will indicate the progress made in raising the fund was placed on the Bridge street side of the Runnels building Wednesday and as soon as money is pledged the hands of the clock will indicate the amount. When the hands make a complete circle of the dial the fund of $150,000 will have been raised.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The expectations of the local customs officials that the recent prosecutions in New York of yesterday.

A young woman passenger in the made laces and embroideries in a false bottom trunk shortly after the liner docked in East Boston.

were kept over on the piers from a quarter of seven in the morning until the same hour at night, with the result that there wasn't any holiday feeling left by the time the second class baggage came up for inspection.

Inspector Wm. J. Sleep, who has on several occasions before demonstrated that his name does not properly describe him, is responsible for the discovery. As he turned up the last piece of wearing apparel in the trunk his knuckles struck the false bottom. By going to the bottom of another trunk not long ago, he had found another false bottom and several thousand dollars worth of pink coral underneath.
So he detected the secret chamber yesterday and at once notified Deputy Surveyor Edgerly, who ordered the goods seized for inspection, and valuation at the appraisers' stores. At his request Col. Billings, commissioner of immigration at this port, detained the young woman and two other women who were traveling with her.

WATCHES

Do you know that there is nearly twice as much gold in some makes of 25-year watch cases as others?

This is only one of many differences between a cheap case and a good one. We sell only the better makes of watch cases, and while they cost a trifle more than interior makes the gold value alone will almost make up the difference.

The beauty of the designs—the exceptional quality of the engraving—the superior workmanship—the perfect fitting joints are all important considerations when you select a watch, and we can quickly show you the value of a good case.

We can supply any grade of any reliable make of watch at the very lowest price.

We do not care to sell inferior makes at any price.

GIRL THE CAUSE

Of Feud Between Two
Gypsy Tribes

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—There is a feud between two gypsy tribes, with Chicago and vicinity as the scene of the conflict. The alleged kidnapping of 13-year-old Amelia Johnson from her father, Ephraim Johnson, in Elizabeth N. J., three years ago, started it. The arrest of Zulachio Demetro on a charge of stealing the girl aggravated the feud.
Now Nicholas George, his wife and three children, said to be members of Johnson's band of gypsies, are under arrest and may be deported. They were arrested yesterday when they arrived in Chicago, presumably to aid
Johnson in getting his daughter back.
Demetro's woman informed the authorities that the Georges were "smuggled" in from Canada after being denied admission by way of Detroit.
The gypsy girl repeated on the stand before Judge Beutler that she did not want to return to her father, but preferred to live with the Demetros because she loved to travel.

Demetro declared his son was Amelia's husband, and that the girl's father had been paid $1000 for the bride. He said $400 was spent for a bridal feast.
The girl and boy were held to the juvenile court.

NELSON'S COLONIAL DEPT. STORE

EXTRA
THE STATE DEPT.Has Received No News From Nicaragua Lately

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The state department is still without information from the consul at Managua, Mr. Caldera, and the strong inference is that his despatches have been interrupted by the Nicaraguan officials under President Zelaya at least to the extent of cutting the telegraphic wires. The department has no doubt that Mr. Caldera has attempted to communicate with it several times during the last week of more. Owing to the absence of specific information which was sought to be obtained through Vice Consul Caldera and other agencies the officials here undoubtedly will delay at least for a time before taking further action.

A dispatch received from Bluefields reassures the United States as to whether American interests or American citizens are being interfered with by the revolutionary army. In effect the dispatch states that great care is being exercised to protect American interests. Advice is added that the steamship Dictator, belonging to the Bluefields, S. S. Co., which came into the possession of the revolutionary forces about a week ago, was detained only one day and that such detention was only for the purpose of examining the vessel with a view to determining whether she carried contraband goods. The delay it is said resulted in no damage to the steamship company.

It is also reported that Amelio Espinoza of the revolutionary provisional government has given up his post as minister general.

It is generally understood that Mr. Espinoza, who is a brother of the former minister from Nicaragua to the United States, who recently resigned, will be elected president of the new republic under Gen. Estrada should the revolution be successful.

THE NICARAGUA DESPATCH

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The publication here of the despatch from Bluefields, Nicaragua, which found its way into the United States by way of Colon and was cabled to London, to the effect that Commander Thesiger of the British cruiser Scylla had paid an official visit to the provisional president, Estrada, excited comment here today. The story lacks official confirmation here. As a matter of fact the recognition of the Nicaraguan insurgents has never been considered by this government. The Scylla was ordered to the east coast of Nicaragua to watch the interests of the British residents. The cruiser reporting her arrival at Bluefields did not mention any visit of Commander Thesiger to Estrada.

The war despatches from Bluefields, Nicaragua, should be read in the light of the knowledge that Bluefields is the headquarters of the insurgents who are able to control the news despatches sent out of that city just as absolutely as President Zelaya regulates press matter emanating from Managua, the capital.

PLEADED GUILTY A QUICK FIRE
Bank Official Was Given
Ten Years

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 26.—Phil Allen, Jr., former vice president of the First National bank of Mineral Point, Wis., appeared today before Judge Sanborn in the United States district court and pleaded guilty to four out of 26 counts in the indictment against him. He was sentenced to ten years in the Federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., the maximum under the law on any one count. Allen was charged with embezzling $168,000 from the Mineral Point bank. The counts to which Allen pleaded guilty cover all the offenses charged in the indictment. These charges were embezzlement of the moneys of the bank, falsification of certificates of deposits, false entries on the books. Allen, who is in his 63rd year, has been in jail for several weeks unable to give $50,000 bond. He pleaded not guilty at Lucerne to the indictment returned against him by the grand jury in that city.

THIRD WEDDING Of Young Woman Was Stopped

DEFIANCE, O., Nov. 26.—Too much publicity spoiled the plans for the third marriage of Mrs. Bessie Speck-Wright, 34, of Defiance, to an intended Thanksgiving event.

The girl was divorced Monday in probate court from her second husband, Edward Larcom, and through a newspaper reporter confided to the public that she intended to be married at once to Benjamin Hill, who had been a boarder at her home, and had advanced money to pay for the divorce proceedings.

When Hill applied Tuesday to the same court for a marriage license it was refused and he was informed that the formal decree of divorce would be withheld while the court looked further into the circumstances.

The girl was first married at the age of 18 to Percy Williams of Cincinnati, and after a divorce married Edward J. Larcom of Deshler, in January last.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—"Speaker Cannon never was stronger before the thinking people of the country than he is today."

This statement was made at the White House today by Rep. Boutelle of Illinois, who had called to see the president and was asked about the situation in congress.

"I know two men," continued Mr. Boutelle, "who had entertained feelings of animosity toward Abraham Lincoln who in later years told me that they would willingly cut off their right arms if they could blot what they had said against him. It will be the same way with a lot of people who now see fit to say things about the speaker."

WOMEN KILLED
By Explosion of Gas in Boarding House

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Margaret Smith, aged 35 and Mrs. Minnie Wright, aged 50, were killed by a gas explosion in a boarding house at 123 North street today. A jet in their room had leaked all night. The landlady detected gas and traced it to the room. She burst in the door just in time to see flames envelop the room. Mrs. Wright in a dazed condition through being half awake and half suffocated by the escaping gas had applied a match to the leaking jet. She was found dead on the floor. The body of Mrs. Smith lay on the bed.

The mayor this morning signed the bill providing for an appropriation of $175 to pay the salaries of 15 additional permanent firemen for the month of December. The 15 have not been appointed as yet as there was some doubt as to whether the mayor would favor the measure. It was expected at city hall that he would veto the measure.

of Two Men
Decides Against Portage
Lake Mill Co.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 26.—After cutting the throats of Burt Woods, a showman attending a carnival here, and John R. Smith, a companion, Jesse Altman was shot and killed today.

Altman and Smith first quarreled with Woods and Altman slashed Woods' throat, leaving him dead in the street. Smith and Altman made their escape to a suburb where they disarmed and killed Altman. Smith's throat. As he fell Smith snatched a revolver from Altman's "pocket" and fired, killing him. Altman had twice been arrested for murder, his victims being negroes.

GAMBEO, Oaxaca, Mexico, Nov. 26.—It was discovered today that 26 prisoners in the penitentiary at Tehuantepec, many of them murderers, had escaped yesterday by digging beneath the prison walls.

The structure was erected in 1540 and the tunneling of the prisoners caused the crumbling walls to fall.

LEBLANC GIRL
Questioned by Police
Officials Again Today

WALTHAM, Nov. 26.—In spite of many reports of a probable solution of the mystery attending the shooting of Clarence Glover in his laundry last Saturday night, the state, county and city authorities admitted today that their investigations of the case had progressed but little since the arrest on Wednesday of Miss Lillian Loblanc, whom the dying man accused of firing the fatal shots. The rigid investigation of the girl's story in which she denied the accusations of her employer and the examination of Mrs. Glover, the widow, apparently have thrown very little light on the case. The investigating officials, however, believe that the two women have not told all they know about the dead man. With this in view the police today again sought the Cambridge jail where the 16-year-old girl is locked up on a charge of murder. It was necessary to take an interpreter as Miss Loblanc speaks poor English.

HELD A DANCING PARTY LAST NIGHT

Division 2, Ancient Order of Hibernians held a very enjoyable Thanksgiving party in its hall last evening and about 250 were present. There was dancing to the music of the Starbird orchestra, and a literary and musical entertainment was enjoyed by these present. The affair was in charge of Hubert McGuire, general manager.

Among the recent issues of patents of local interest secured through the office of Gardner W. Pearson, is one to Fred W. Herbert, of Polham, N. H., assignor of an oil interest to Thomas J. Kennedy of Lowell upon a non-rendable bottle.

Mr. "Jack" Storey, formerly of Lakeview avenue, but now assistant manager of a starch factory at Farmington, Mass., is in town over Thanksgiving, renewing old acquaintances. He returns to Farmington on Monday and before his return will be tendered a reception by his old friends of the avenue.

RAILROAD BOARD
Decides Against Portage
Lake Mill Co.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 26.—A decision dismissing the petition of the Portage Lake Mill Co. of Bangor which complained that the lumber rate charged by the Bangor & Aroostook R. R. Co. from Portage Lake to the harbor at Cape Jellison is unreasonably high was rendered today by the state board of railroad commissioners. The decision is the first of its kind to be handed down by the Maine commissioners.

"It is for us only to follow the opinion of the court," said the commissioner, "and we must therefore decide that the Bangor & Aroostook R. R. Co. has a right to meet the conditions of competition at Van Buren whether from another railroad or other sources within the state or whether it comes from the St. John river and railroads on the other side of the river in Canada."

Speaking of the extensions and branches of the Bangor and Aroostook now being built at a cost of at least $1,500,000 the commissioners said:

"These four additional lines will naturally bring about a readjustment of zone and rates in the country along the St. John river. Until these lines are in operation, however, we are unable to find that the present rates are either unreasonable or discriminatory."

THE NINTH REGT.
Attended Services at the Cathedral

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—A service unique in some respects was held yesterday at the Holy Cross cathedral. The service was a brilliant religious-military event and consisted of a solemn high memorial mass for the soldiers of the Ninth regiment of the state militia who died during the Spanish war. Gov. Draper and staff, Mayor Hibbard, James J. Storow and many military men were among those present. A patriotic sermon was preached by Archbishop O'Connell. Members of the Ninth regiment are practically all members of the Roman Catholic church.

At the elevation of the host the bugles of two companies, which were under arms near the sanctuary sounded and the soft roll of drums rumbled through the edifice, the militiamen presenting arms.

TWO AMERICANS
Were Officers in the Insurgent Army

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Grace and Cannon, the two Americans executed by order of President Zelaya of Nicaragua, last week, held commissions in the insurgent army, according to private advices received here last night from Bluefields, where the revolutionary government is located. The dispatch stated that the state department of the United States had been notified of this effect.

The state department has been anxious to clear up the point whether the two men had commissions or were merely acting in their individual capacity for in the former event they would have been entitled to treatment as prisoners of war.

DIVORCE COURT
Case of Ross vs. Ross
on Trial Today

The superior court, without jury, Judge Sanderson presiding, took up the contested divorce cases, and the first heard was that of Ross vs. Ross, a Newburyport case which was on trial all day Wednesday.

In this case the libellant declares that the libellee was guilty of confirmed habits of intoxication and another statutory offense, while on the other hand the libellee replies that the libellant was guilty of cruelty, and of a statutory offense and she asks that she be granted the divorce, and also asks for alimony from the libellant.

William H. Dineen was the first witness heard this morning and he testified that he worked in a shoe factory in Newburyport with the libellant. Mr. Ross was inspector of his work. He testified in favor of Mrs. Ross, and under direct examination he said that on several occasions he had seen Mr. Ross with a woman other than his wife. He also had seen him at Ipswich with a woman in a hotel, and Mr. Ross had asked him not to tell Mrs. Ross anything about the matter. He had seen Mr. Ross under the influence of liquor. On several occasions he had purchased liquor from Mr. Ross; on two occasions he bought several pints of wine.

Under cross examination he stoutly denied that he had ever taken Mrs. Ross to the theatre. He said he had roomed at the Ross house for three years, and he denied that he had ever seen Mrs. Ross under the influence of liquor. He had never seen her on the street with other men. He had seen her coming from the theatre about 10.30 o'clock in the evening, but he did not walk home with her. Mr. Ross showed him on two occasions two bank books, which called for $300.

Mrs. Lucy W. Burns testified that she lived in Newburyport, and up until the time that the Rosses had separated she lived next door to them. For more than five years Mrs. Ross had visited her in the morning and sometimes in the afternoons and occasionally at night. Once in a while she and Mrs. Ross went to the theatre and the witness said on all these visits Mrs. Ross was perfectly sober; she had never taken a drink in the presence of the witness. Under cross-examination she said that so far as she knew Mr. Ross was a good provider. She knew Mrs. Ross had been away from home several nights but she did not know where she had gone. After some evidence in rebuttal the case was taken under advisement by the court.

The Merrill Case

In the superior court Wednesday, John C. Leggett appeared in behalf of his client, Charles A. Merrill, in relation to Mr. Merrill's second suit against the officers of the Law and Order league. Mr. Leggett said that when the suit for conversion of property was called last week it was understood that the other suit, which is for salary claimed by Mr. Merrill from the league, would be abandoned, the parties consenting to accept judgment rendered in the lower court. Since the trial, he said, James F. Owens, counsel for the league officers, has been unable to bring his clients to an agreement, and the case was therefore in order. Mr. Owens, however, was engaged in the criminal session in Cambridge, and the case will be held open until later.

SHOT TO DEATH

Mother and Her Daughter Killed
by West Virginia Officers

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Nov. 26.—Firing from the doorway of their home on a sheriff's posse to give their father and brothers an opportunity to escape, Mrs. Charles Daniels and her 16-year-old daughter were shot to death near Devon, Mingo county, by the officers. The shooting grew out of a family feud between the Christians and Daniels on the border of Kentucky and West Virginia. The Christians lived in Mingo county, W. Virginia, and the Daniels in Pike county, Md. About three weeks ago George Christians ventured to the Kentucky side and was slain by Jim Daniels. Christians and Daniels were mothers-in-law and had formerly been allies. After the killing of Christian, the

AN AUTO EXPERT

Was Killed Instantly by a Shock

MANSFIELD, Nov. 26.—While repairing an automobile at a garage here yesterday E. E. Williams, 35 years old, of Medford, a mechanic and automobile expert, was instantly killed by a shock from an electric wire attached to a light which he held in his hand. Williams came here Wednesday and was given employment by Howard N. Faine, who conducts a garage on Rumford avenue.

He was attempting to repair one of the cars, and used an electric light to enable him to see under the car. While holding the wire his hand came in contact with a portion which was not insulated. Instantly there was a flash and he fell to the floor.

THE VALUE OF PROPRIETARY MEDICINES

Is proven by the very large percentage of physicians' prescriptions for the same remedies found in every drug store in America, but as they are written in Latin, few patients realize this fact.

The old standard proprietary medicines like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that have stood the test of time, deserve a place in every family medicine chest, and it is most certain they would not be prescribed by physicians if they were able to devise a formula equally as efficacious.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Traditions of the Festival Duly Honored in Lowell

Special Services in the Churches—The Weather Prevented Outdoor Enjoyment but Theatres and Dance Halls Were Crowded

Thanksgiving Day was observed very quietly in Lowell, the traditions of the festival being duly honored. Atmospherically there wasn't much to be thankful for except that it was no worse, while some shoe dealers who had promised their help a rest on Thanksgiving day were bustled selling rubbers by the dozen and no questions asked as to price.

Outdoor sports which form a considerable part of the holiday program in Lowell as elsewhere were tabooed on account of the weather, but indoors all was merriment and good cheer.

Special services were held in all the churches. In the Catholic churches in accordance with a time honored custom, different societies in the height of their thankfulness remembered the dead, and recited masses for deceased members were sung as were masses of thanksgiving.

In the orphanages, the jail and city farm the inmates were treated to special dinners, mostly turkey, followed by entertainments in the evening and if happiness didn't find its way into the hearts of the unfortunates within their walls it was not the fault of those who are entrusted with their care.

While Thanksgiving day is an "Old Home" day all over New England and many visitors came here for the holiday, hundreds of Lowell people went out of town for the holiday and the depot was the scene of great activity from early morning until late at night. Many Lowell people went to Boston at noon took their dinner in a hotel and attended the theatres in the afternoon while others were the guests of friends out of town. The trains were delayed somewhat on account of the storm in the north while the returning trains last evening made frequent short stops on account of the unreliability of the block signal system which was seriously interfered with on account of the weather.

Almost into the city of Boston snow could be seen along the line of the railroad from Lowell, but in Boston there was no sign of it, rain and hail having fallen the night previous, but no snow.

In Catholic Churches

Special services were held in all the Catholic churches of the city yesterday morning with large attendances.

At the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of thanksgiving was sung by Rev. Geo. I. Nolan, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Denis A. Sullivan, O. M. I., deacon; Rev. John P. Flynn, O. M. I., sub-deacon. Mr. John Allen was master of ceremonies. The music of the mass was given by the regular choir under the direction of Mrs. Hugh Walker, who also presided at the organ. The attendance was large.

At the Sacred Heart church high mass of requiem was sung for the deceased members of the Holy Name society at 8 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Tighe, O. M. I., officiated, and the choir was under the direction of Mrs. Adelaide Muldoon. The members of the society attended in a body.

At St. Peter's church at 8 o'clock Rev. Dr. Kelleher, pastor, sang high mass of requiem for the deceased members of the Ladies' auxiliary of the O. M. I. James E. Donnell directed the choir. The members of the Ladies' auxiliary were in attendance.

At St. Patrick's church two masses for special intentions were sung. The first was at 8 o'clock for the repose of the souls of the deceased members of the Holy Name society, and the celebrant was Rev. John J. McHugh. At 10 o'clock a mass was celebrated for the dead members of the Clan-na-Gael association, Rev. Joseph Curtin being the celebrant. The members of those organizations were in attendance.

At St. Michael's church a mass for the repose of the souls of the dead members of the Holy Name society was celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. John J. Shaw, the pastor. The new sanctuary choir of the church, of forty voices, made its first appearance. Jas. A. Murphy was the director.

Two masses were celebrated at St. Anthony's church. The first was at 7 o'clock and Rev. Fr. Perrot was the celebrant. The second was at 7:30 o'clock, the celebrant being Rev. Joachim V. Rosa, the pastor.

Union Baptist Service

The Protestant churches of all denominations observed the day with special services.

The churches representing the Baptist denomination united in a Thanksgiving day service at 10:30 in the new Calvary church in the Highlands. The clergymen taking part were Rev. Asa Reed Ditts of Calvary church, Rev. S. W. Cummings of the First church, Rev. A. P. Wedge of Worthen Street church, Rev. Forester A. Macdonald of the Fifth Street, Rev. J. C. Wilson of the Chestnut Street Free Baptist and Rev. C. H. Ellis of Chelmsford Centre.

There was music by a quartet composed of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Benson, and Messrs. Masson and Hardy, and congregational singing of the familiar Thanksgiving hymns and "America." The offering was for a ministry to the sick in the Lowell General hospital. The sermon was preached by Rev. Forester A. Macdonald. His text was from Acts, 24th chapter, part of the 16th verse, "A conscience void of offence toward God and man." The central thought of the sermon was the awakening of a universal conscience, based on the standard set by Paul, as recognizing first duty toward God, and resulting from that consciousness, a consciousness of duty toward all mankind.

At the Elliot Congregational church a union service of the Congregational churches was held at 10:30 a. m. The preacher was Rev. A. P. Dunneis and his subject was "And Be Ye Thankful."

The Methodists held a union service at the Worthen Street Methodist church with a large attendance. The services opened with an organ prelude, followed by a hymn by the congregation. This was read by Rev. J. T. Carleton, pastor of the Centralville M. E. church. Prayer was offered by Rev. Benedict Nilsson, pastor of the Swedish M. E. church. Mrs. Charles A. Whitte sang a number, and the Thanksgiving proclamation was read by Rev. N. W. Matthews, pastor of the Gorman Street Methodist church. The chorus choir gave a selection and there was responsive reading by Rev. N. T. Whitaker, pastor of the Central M. E. church. The hymn was read by Rev. George H. Dean, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church, and the scripture reading was by Rev. J. T. Carleton, pastor of the Lawrence Street Methodist church.

Benediction was given by Rev. Mr. Whitaker.

The sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Stephen, whose text was: "The people shall be righteous."

Services were held at St. Anne's church yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. It consisted of full service, holy communion and a Thanksgiving sermon by Rev. A. St. John Chamber. There was a good sized congregation. The full choir was in attendance.

An entertainment was given last night in the Lawrence Street P. M. church with the following program: Piano solo, John Moss; solo, Mrs. Jas. Sisson; reading, Miss Blanche Kelley; solo, J. W. Stott; song, Miss Irene Buchanan; duet, Mrs. James Sisson and J. W. Stott; solo, Miss Vivian Cowen. The program was well received, as was also an eccentric musical sketch entitled "The Sweet Family," the cast of which was as follows: "Ma Sweet," Mrs. T. E. Wilde; "Arminity Ann," Miss Eliza McCord; "Betsy Belindy," Mrs. John Buchanan; "Caroline Cordelia," Mrs. William Logan; "Dorothy Dallah," Mrs. W. H. McQuade; "Elizabeth Eliza," Mrs. William Bennett; "Gloriana Gadabout," Mrs. William McQuade.

An enjoyable Thanksgiving entertainment was held last evening in the Worthen Street Baptist church under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. Despite the rain a large attendance was present, and the social proved a complete success. A one act sketch entitled "Maiden Forlorn" was repeated with the same cast by which it was presented some time ago, including the Misses Lila Lunt, Luit Point, Lottie Corey, Belle Sunderland, Lillie Dunn and Mrs. I. W. Goldthwaite. Piano solos were much enjoyed, and readings occupied a prominent part on the program.

With the Orphans

The children of St. Peter's orphanage enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the fixings and in the afternoon games and indoor fun were enjoyed.

At the Edison orphanage the children attended service in St. Louis, Louisiana in the morning and at noon sat down to a bountiful holiday dinner. In the afternoon games were enjoyed.

The children of the First Street and Kirk Street Day nurseries had their Thanksgiving dinner Wednesday, the children going to their respective homes yesterday. The tables were laden with the many good things all for the little ones. In the afternoon the children played games and had a general good time.

At the Children's Home 51 children had a fine turkey dinner with all the fixings and ice cream to boot. An entertainment program followed the feast.

With the Poor

A special dinner of roast pork and vegetables was served the inmates of the city farm. There was no entertainment.

At the Jail

Keeper Harry Shaw of the Lowell jail lived up to his reputation for using the unfortunates "right" yesterday, by serving them a fine turkey dinner. After dinner the men were allowed the freedom of the corridors and a full supply of pipes and tobacco.

At the Theatres

Large audiences attended the performances at the Opera House and Hathaway's yesterday afternoon and evening, while the picture shows were crowded all day.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Despite the inclement weather yesterday afternoon and last evening two very large audiences turned out and witnessed the performances of "East Lynne" at the Opera House. The play was well received.

"East Lynne" is one of the favorite dramas and always draws well. It is a strong emotional play and was ably interpreted by the cast yesterday. Everything required in the way of scenic equipment and accessories was well provided.

The leading roles were portrayed by capable people and they were assisted by a well trained and carefully selected company.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" that grand old play, will be presented at the Opera House today and Saturday, matinee and night, by Leon W. Washburn's carefully selected company of players. No play ever written has the heart interest of this play of olden times. No play has done the amount of good work for many helpless drunkards and women, who after a life of the so-called intemperance have witnessed the play and gone out into the world wiser and better people. Many interesting specialties are introduced during the several acts to enliven up the sombre scenes.

"UNDER THE NORTH STAR"

Commencing Monday, Nov. 29th, for three nights and Wednesday matinee, the attraction at the Opera House will be "Under the North Star," a play of unusual interest, and of which the Manchester Mirror of Nov. 17th said: "An audience of good numbers thoroughly enjoyed the presentation of 'Under the North Star,' at the New Park theatre yesterday afternoon and evening. The company is well balanced and is enabled to carry out the thrilling details of the play. Miss Maxine Rossberry, who assumes the role of the Eskimo girl, is worthy of special mention. She is said to speak the Eskimo dialect with the fluency of a denizen of the North pole region, and she is also a capable actress."

In the second act Mr. Summers, the comedian of the company, shines in an Irish role, and gives the audience many a hearty laugh." The engagement here will be played at popular prices.

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

"The Man on the Box" was an amusing comedy of almost farcical mischance when Henry E. Dixey acted it for two seasons in New York and on tour, and it ought to be no less amusing when Wilmer Walker and a special company present it at the Opera House on Thursday, Dec. 2. The book by Harold McGrath has been widely read, and the play follows the lines of the story very closely.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

There are many bright spots on the bill at Hathaway's theatre, this week. It is, all in all, the best holiday bill ever put forward at the little play house. Mabel Bardine and company give the headline touch to the program, with the little Chino-American tragedy called "Suey San." This is a play written by Carlyle Moore, for Miss Bardine and the incidental music has been composed by William Breda. The piece abounds in beauties and the presenting company is wholly excellent.

Gracie Emmott, of the uproariously funny manner and inimitable comedy touches, appears in that funny comedy called "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband." The act is a paroxysm of laughter from beginning to end. Anna Chandler has woman plaudits everywhere she has appeared for the art she displays in her singing. It is really remarkable. The Great Ergotti and his two Lilliputians will give the requisite thrills with their great Risley act. Maroon & Helms have happy minstrel moments; El Barto is a wizard with comedy attachments, and Bert and Lottie Walton open the show with a bit of everything. The motion pictures are new.

Performances will be given every afternoon and evening during the remainder of the week, with special seats at the theatres for women.

KEPT PRISONER BY AWFUL HUMOR

Whole Body Covered and Head So Bad She Could Not Comb Hair—Slight Affected—Neighbor Begged Her to Use Cuticura—It Cooled the Itching Flesh and

BROUGHT REST, SLEEP AND A PERFECT CURE

"Words cannot express the awful skin disease I suffered with. My whole body was covered with it. My head broke out so that I could not comb my hair. For a month or more I suffered with a terrible sore throat. When I should lie down at night my eyes would stick together and I would have to bathe them before opening them each morning. I scarcely could see for my eyes had failed me from the effect of the skin disease. I tried three doctors, but they gave me no relief and then I tried all kinds of things that I thought would do me good but I could find nothing. I was a perfect prisoner with the awful humor."

"One of my neighbors begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I made up my mind to try them but not thinking that I would ever be cured. I would take a hot bath with Cuticura Soap and then apply the Cuticura Ointment. I found relief in a few days and in a month you could scarcely see a spot on my face. I felt like a new person. When I first began to use the Cuticura Remedies they cooled the itching flesh and brought me real good sleep and rest at night. I had suffered fully two years with the skin disease but now I am a well woman and in good health. I beg every skin sufferer to use the Cuticura Remedies. I cannot praise Cuticura enough because I thought that I would never get well again. Mrs. Cordelia C. Pitts, Newborn, Ga., Nov. 24 and Dec. 21, '08."

Keeping the Hair

To prevent dry, thin and falling hair, remove dandruff, allay itching and irritation and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampooes with Cuticura Soap and occasional dressings with Cuticura are usually effective when all other methods fail. Cuticura Soap (Box), Cuticura Ointment (Box), and Cuticura Resolvent (Bottle), for in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per tin of 50 are sold throughout the world. WILLIAM L. LOWELL'S THANKSGIVING.

Lowell has many things to be thankful for, not the least of which is the very general well being of her people. There is very little sickness in the city at the present time. Practically all who want employment can find it at reasonable wages, and there is very little destitution to be found anywhere. For all this we have reason to be thankful.

WAGES AND COST OF LIVING.

In England for some time past a downward tendency in wages has been causing as much concern to the people generally as the upward tendency in prices in this country. It differs little to the wage earner whether his wages go down or the prices of commodities go up. The result to him is practically the same when his wages are cut ten per cent. as it would be if the cost of living went up to the same extent. When the prices of commodities increase it takes a considerable time to convince the employers of labor that the rate of wages is not as great, relatively speaking, as it was before.

It is the purchasing power of the dollar that guides the wage earner as to whether his wages are as high as they should be. It is this same factor that makes the difference between the rate of wages in England and this country. A dollar in England at the present time will purchase more than twice as much as it would in this country. In England, too, the rate of wages follows the cost of living upward or downward more regularly than in this country. Prices in England are regulated by the laws of supply and demand, but here they are regulated mainly by artificial laws in which trusts, high tariffs and speculators are the chief factors.

THE IMPETUS TO FARMING.

Never perhaps in the history of this country has there been a time when there was more inducement than there is at present to engage in the farming industry. At last the farmer has the whip hand over the people of this country, and he can get almost any price he asks for his produce.

With wheat soaring over a dollar a bushel, cotton fifteen cents a pound, eggs 55 cents a dozen, beef from 30 to 50 cents a pound and other commodities proportionately high, there is certainly great inducement to turn back the stream that sets from the farms to the big cities and have men leave the factories for the farms where they can probably earn more and work under better conditions. No longer should there be any deserted farms in New England. They should be all occupied and under profitable tillage. The farmer who cannot get rich with prices such as now prevail either does not want to work or he does not know his business.

With the price of eggs so high there is great inducement to raise poultry; with beef and pork soaring there is big money to be made on raising hogs and cattle for slaughter. These are but a few of the important opportunities that invite the attention of the industrious and appeal especially to the money-making instincts of the farmer.

Here in Massachusetts the soil is usually light and friable, so that it is easily tilled under ordinary circumstances, and as a rule is highly productive. But if there be few who can pull up their stakes in the city and move to the rural districts or even to the suburbs to take up farming, let the men who reside in the city make the best of the opportunities that lie within their grasp.

It would be well for those who have land suitable for cultivation within the city's limits or even at convenient points outside the city to advertise the same in the press in order that as many as possible may be induced to take up the farming industry even in a small way to supplement some other calling.

There are thousands of men in Lowell who could make money by cultivating a tract of land in the suburbs and raising vegetables of various kinds. In this way a man with a very little capital can embark in a line of business that will benefit himself and others. If he cannot do the work himself he will always be able to find men ready to do it for moderate wages.

In this way men who work eight or nine hours a day in factory and workshop might supplement their incomes by raising a crop of vegetables that would supply their family needs during the summer and even into the winter.

OUTLOOK FOR A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The democratic party in the recent primaries showed unmistakable signs of renewed life, vigor and harmony. There was a long list of candidates, and to the credit of the voters be it said that the nominations as a whole reflect good judgment and intelligence. Seeking the nomination for mayor were five young men, any one of whom would fill the place with credit; but the people—the great majority—have chosen Mr. Meehan, and to that decision every good democrat, including even the defeated aspirants for the nomination, will say amen.

Major Crowley, James E. O'Donnell, John W. Daly and William E. Maloney are all men of character and ability, and the fact that the nomination went to Meehan will not cause any one of them to swerve in their devotion to the democratic party.

The contest for the nomination was one that enlisted the keenest interest of the voters, and as a result the ticket named reflects the will of the party, perhaps to a greater extent than any named for a number of years. That is one reason why perfect harmony will prevail and why the ticket will receive the undivided support of all true democrats.

With one or two exceptions the aldermanic ticket is made up of men who have had experience in the city council, men who stand well in the community, but the whole nine, we believe, can be implicitly relied upon to give the city honest and enlightened service if elected.

On the whole the outlook for a democratic victory in the coming city election is very encouraging and it brings the hope of better municipal government, at least for the coming year.

Rep. Meehan is not as well known throughout the city as some other men of less note. But he will make himself known before election day, and he will invite the closest scrutiny of his every official act while serving as a member of the legislature. It was because he rendered good service as a legislator that his own ward gave him such a sweeping plurality. Personally, Mr. Meehan is a man above reproach, without any bad habits and of highly exemplary character. As a college graduate and a legislator he has shown eminent ability as a keen and logical debater, a fluent speaker and a man with a level head. With such a man as candidate for mayor there can be no question about a democratic victory on election day, and, therefore, with the utmost confidence we can predict that Mr. Meehan will be the next mayor of Lowell.

How To Be Happy

Many People Would Give
Thousands of Dollars if They Could Only be Happy.

Happiness is merely a habit. Some people have it by nature, others have to cultivate it. It is a pretty hard thing to do, but it can be done. It means forgetting injuries, hurts, and neglects, and to not permit our minds to dwell on anything that causes worry and sorrow; putting aside the past, and living today, with no fret about tomorrow; to believe in ultimate good and trust all things to work towards this end; forgetting ourselves and making others happy.

It's just a habit, and can be cultivated, and there is no other habit so well worth the while.

One of the greatest aids to happiness is to buy a Hallet & Davis Piano.

STORM IS OVER

Indications of Better Weather Hereabouts

Lowell people had all kinds of weather, as well as turkey, served out to them yesterday, and for the first real snow storm of the season it proved to be a corker. There was rain, snow, hail, sleet, wind and slush. First it would be one thing, then another and at another time there would be a general combination.

Thanksgiving day is a day when most people sit close to the fireside, and yesterday was certainly a good day to stay in the house.

The weather man certainly put us on the wrong track. Wednesday he said that it would rain, but predicted that it would clear late at night. Instead of clearing, however, the rain turned to snow, the wind began to blow, then there was a blinding sleet and during the night every description of weather was handed out.

Yesterday the prognosticator said that it would be clear and fair today, but once more he was off on his reckoning, at least for this locality.

To make matters worse the storm was one of those regular out and out northerners.

Wednesday night the high overshoes and rubbers were resurrected and they felt very comfortable for the slush was penetrating and the person who did not have his shoes covered went home with wet feet. The shoe stores did a rushing business. Wednesday evening for many people rather than get their feet wet by walking home, invested in new footgear.

For the first time this winter the snow plows were brought out, but the nature of the storm was such that they were practically useless. With a good fall of snow the cars could have been kept on better running time, but the sleet and rain combined made the rails slippery and the cars especially on routes which led over hills could not be kept on regular time.

The cars on the Billerica line got tangled up Wednesday night and those who had occasion to use that line found that the service was anything but satisfactory. On some other lines cars were stalled so that many strangers who came here by the trolley lines were unable to get home.

Today the indications were for better weather, clear skies and colder.

ADMIRAL SWIFT

Urges Great Changes in Navy Yards

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The forthcoming report of the special naval board of which Rear Admiral Swift is chairman, it is declared, will submit recommendations to the secretary of the navy that will revolutionize the operation of American navy yards. It is not known definitely whether the recommendations advance the proposition that certain navy yards be abandoned, but it is generally believed that consolidation is advocated.

The officials of the navy department refused to give any idea last night what the report will be, but experts are of the opinion that concentration will be the burden of the report, thus meaning greater economy and better results. The chief trouble with the present system is that a number of yards are incapable of caring for the new warships of the "Dreadnought" class and that only partial repairs are possible in many of the depots.

In the last congress the question of consolidation of the yards was widely discussed. It was set forth that navy yards in which several classes of war could be handled at one time and given complete attention were necessary. If the navy were to be a fighting force of sufficient importance to be maintained, in case of a naval engagement, it was declared, a ship limping in from the sea should be given prompt and immediate attention, so that she might be in condition to sail forth again in the shortest possible time.

The critics of the present system declared this was impossible under existing conditions and advocated a change. It is not known whether the report advocates changes in the present bureau system of the navy.

President Taft Enjoyed Turkey Dinner

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Sated with the possum dinners and elaborate banquets he was forced to face in his recent trip from coast to coast, President Taft sat down yesterday afternoon to a family Thanksgiving dinner. The piece de resistance was a turkey that was raised on a Rhode Island farm and looked almost mountainous in its proportions. Mr. Taft smiled genially when the dessert was served. He leaned back in his chair: "Thank goodness," he sighed, happily, "I've had a dinner at which I haven't been compelled to make speeches and where no reception committees lurked in the background. I've enjoyed food—real food—and I haven't had to work to get it."

The president did not have any guests at dinner. Only the members of the Taft family were present, including Mrs. Lauchlin, sister of Mrs. Taft, Miss Helen and the two boys had come from their schools for the occasion and will remain until after the holidays.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Bearing a certified check to $25,000 to be applied for a bid to the Jeffries-Johnson battle, T. L. Rickard of Goldfield, Nev., whisked through town enroute to Philadelphia for a conference with Jeffries. The man who engineered the Gans-Nelson combat, one of the affairs in fight history, is after the heavyweight contest and is enthusiastic over his prospects.

"I am going to land that fight," said Rickard during his stop here, "if money and protection can secure it. If I get the fight the battle will in all probability be held in Salt Lake City, Utah. We have things arranged. I have the certified check in possession for $25,000 and a certified order to bid as high as $100,000 for the fight."

GEORGE SLOSSON
EASILY DEFEATED THE FRENCH CHAMPION

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Calvin Demarest, of Chicago, George Slosson of Chicago and George Slosson of New York were the winners of yesterday's play in the 18.2 balk line billiard tournament at Madison Square garden. Slosson last night proved himself the superior of the French champion, Ferdinand Cassagnol, defeating him in the 29th inning by a score of 300 to 251. The Frenchman was in poor form, his high run being only 40 to Slosson's 35. The New York expert showed some of the most brilliant billiards seen since the tournament began.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 26.—In a fight at the Norfolk navy yard last night witnessed by a thousand men, mostly naval officers and enlisted men Jimmy Galvin, middleweight champion of the navy, defeated Dick Phillips, welterweight champion. The fight was to have been for ten rounds, but the tearing of one of Phillips' gloves caused the bout to come to an end in the fifth. Galvin, an electrician on the battleship Indiana, outwheeled Phillips, an electrician at the navy yard wireless telegraph station, by fifteen pounds. The betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Galvin and $2500 changed hands. Phillips declared he is determined to fight Galvin to a finish and arrangements have been made for the two men to meet again Christmas night.

BOSTON CAMPAIGNFitzgerald Challenges Storrow to a Joint Debate

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The campaign for the first municipal election under the new city charter in January is still in the newspaper trade but every day one or two of the candidates is before the public in either open letters or statements. Press agents are actively at work and so far the best of good feeling prevails among the contestants in the mayoralty race.

Three of the leading candidates, Mayor George Hibbard, former Mayor Fitzgerald, and James H. Storrow, the citizens candidate, attended the same church yesterday.

Mayor Hibbard was assigned a seat in the first pew and John F. Fitzgerald occupied a seat in the second. Mr. Storrow was not so conspicuous as either of his rivals.

"Well, John," said Mayor Hibbard to Fitzgerald, "I'm going to be in the first pew next year, too."

"No, you're not," said Fitzgerald. "I'm going to occupy the first pew next year."

Mayor Hibbard would not agree. "Anyway," added Hibbard, "we'll keep Storrow in the third pew. The fight is between you and me."

Undaunted by the declaration of Mr. Storrow to limit campaign expenses to $10,000, Mr. Fitzgerald is out in another letter today inviting Mr. Storrow to a joint debate on municipal finances. Mr. Fitzgerald defends the custom of awarding city contracts in liquidating campaign debts against Mr. Storrow's criticism, claiming that it is of long standing and was pursued by former Mayor Nathan Matthews, who is one of Mr. Storrow's most prominent supporters.

By the first of the week all the candidates will have their campaigns well organized.

BISHOP HEREFORD

Urges the House of Lords to Pass the Budget

LONDON, Nov. 26.—"If you win a victory it will be only a temporary one; if you lose, you have prejudiced the position, power, prestige and usefulness of the house of lords, which I believe every one of you honors and desires to serve as heartily as I do myself."

In this homely, candid fashion Lord Balfour of Burleigh gave the members of the house of lords last evening his opinion of the course they are pursuing with regard to the budget. He has none of the graces of oratory which Lord Rosebery possesses, but his plain downright manner is not without effect and his speech was the real event of yesterday's sitting of the upper chamber. It probably will have even greater influence than that of Lord Rosebery, because Rosebery no longer holds the confidence of any party.

The Bishop of Hereford, when interviewed later in the debate, said that while he respected the Archbishop of Canterbury's desire that the bishops abstain from voting on the measure, he claimed the right to the exercise of independent judgment. If the bishops had any function to perform it was to speak for the multitudinous poor, he said, therefore he supported the budget, which was a social welfare budget, based on sound finance. He was convinced, he declared, that the country's answer to an appeal to the ballot would be in clear English that never again shall the fundamental liberties of the people be endangered by a privileged class. He wished that the budget might be passed as a protection against the rapidly growing spirit of revolt among the democracy, which might become dangerous.

Many other of the peers spoke, but all of them along ordinary party lines. The debate was adjourned yesterday until Monday, when Viscount Morley, Lord Curzon and Lord Rothschild are expected to address the house. Lord Curzon's cold, which precluded his speaking yesterday, is better.

Rumors are current that the Conservative leaders, seeing the damaging effect that the speeches of Lords

Cromer, Rosebery and Balfour of Burleigh is likely to have on the Conservative cause in an election, are reconsidering their position with regard to the budget. But the best information indicates that Lord Lansdowne's resolution against the adoption of the budget will go to a division and be carried by an enormous majority.

A great pro-budget demonstration took place last night in Parliament square and that locality. Six thousand persons gathered for the demonstration and sang political songs and cheered for David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer. Police to the number of 1500 were employed in keeping order, but finally the crowd became unmanageable and they cleared the square. There were some slight scuffles and several arrests were made. The demonstration is likely to be repeated on a larger scale Monday and Tuesday.

THE HIBERNIANS

To Hold Big Class Initiation Sunday

The class initiation under the auspices of Divisions 8 and 11, A. O. H., will be held in Associate hall Sunday afternoon. It is expected that nearly one hundred candidates will go through the degrees. The work will be exemplified by the degree team from Malden and the visitors will reach Lowell about 1.30 Sunday afternoon. The exercises in Associate hall will begin at 2 o'clock and members of all the local divisions are invited to be present. Associate hall was engaged because it was thought the floor space in A. O. H. hall would not be large enough to permit satisfactory work by the degree team. After the exercises in the hall the degree team with other guests will be entertained at a banquet in Merrimack hotel. The affair promises to be the most successful initiation ever conducted by the local Hibernians.

State Officers Coming

Daniel E. Hogan, secretary of the central council of the A. O. H., today received a letter from State Secretary Jeffrey Sullivan, stating that the state officers of the order will reach Lowell at 12 o'clock next Sunday for the purpose of conferring with the members of the central council about the state convention and parade to be held in this city next August. This conference will be held at 1 o'clock, and at its conclusion the state officers will go to Associate hall to witness the class initiation.

SILVER WEDDING

OF TWO COUPLES SUITABLY OBSERVED LAST NIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gourdeau of 230 Cheever street, and Mr. and Mrs. Phidino Soudard of 111 Lakeview avenue, who were married at the same time—Mrs. Gourdeau and Mrs. Soudard being sisters—at Montreal 26 years ago, both celebrated last night the silver anniversary of their wedding.

A purse of silver dollars was first presented Mr. and Mrs. Gourdeau, their charming little granddaughters, Anna Barrette, making the presentation prettily in the name of the guests present. An address was also read by Mrs. George Bellay.

After the presentation of the purse, for which Mr. and Mrs. Gourdeau happily voiced their thanks, a delightful evening was passed with dancing, music and refreshments. Mr. Oswald Dagenals played the violin for dancing, with Mr. George Bellay at the piano. Those in charge of the refreshment tables were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Barrette, Miss Eugenie Vincent, Miss Alina Nault, Miss Annette Boudet, Miss Adrienne Gourdeau, Mr. Octave Perron and Mr. Alexandre Gourdeau.

WRECKAGE SIGHTED

Believed That Two Vessels Were Wrecked off Cape Ann

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—Possible loss of life in the wrecking of one, and may be two, coastwise sailing vessels, and the narrow escape of the German freight steamer Aragonia from destruction on the rocks skirting Cape Ann were reported here yesterday by the small fleet of steamers which arrived after long detentions outside by the storm.

Both the Aragonia which arrived from Manila, and the Posidon, from Manchester, reported sighting wreckage off the coast, in the vicinity of Cape Ann. The vessel may have been a victim of the northeast storm of the past several days.

Officers of the Aragonia told a tale of stormy incidents on the voyage across the Atlantic, which nearly terminated on the rocks off Cape Ann. A heavy fall of fog skirted the coast Wednesday morning, which, with an unusually strong northerly current made navigation hazardous. The current carried the Aragonia 35 miles off her course and the fog prevented exact ascertaining of position until she was but two lengths from the rocks. She was backed off barely in time.

Captain Parry of the Bostonian, from Manchester, Eng., gives the location of the wreckage which he sighted as latitude 42.40, north; longitude 67.18, west, just off Cape Ann. It appeared to be that of a coastwise vessel. No signs of life were visible.

THE SLAVE TRADE

Col. Wyllie Denounces Stories Concerning It

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The widespread allegations of deplorable conditions in Portuguese East Africa, particularly in the islands of San Thomé

and Principe, credited by recent English and American writers to the existence of a cruel slave trade in Africa, were denounced as unwarranted fabrications yesterday by Col. J. A. Wyllie, fellow of the Royal Geographical Society of England, who arrived on the steamer Tonic, from Southampton and Cherbourg, after a two months' investigation of conditions in Portuguese East Africa.

Col. Wyllie spent the month of last August on the islands of San Thomé and Principe. He said he found a spirit of friendliness for freedom between the white man and the black. "The African's condition is wonderfully improved as a laborer for the Portuguese in contrast with his home environment in Central Africa," said Col. Wyllie.

BELGIUM COUNT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—An old-fashioned Maryland Thanksgiving day was enjoyed yesterday by the Belgian minister, Count De Bussere. This good luck befell him in a peculiar way, and the story of it is now going the rounds of the diplomatic circles.

The count was out with the Chevy Chase hunt. A fox had been started and the going was fast. The count became separated from the rest of the field. His horse lay over a fence. At least the count thought it did but his horse had other plans. Reaching the fence the horse refused it but the count kept going. The horse then galloped off.

The count looked about him. It was lonely. But off in the distance was an imposing farmhouse. After a weary plod the count arrived and found the family about to sit down to dinner. Nothing would do but that he should join them. He did so and what had threatened to be a misadventure proved a most enjoyable treat. His content was complete when returning to the city he found his horse had been caught and was safely stable.

BANK OFFICIAL

WORCESTER, Nov. 26.—That the American colleges are one hundred years behind the times in fitting young men for business life was the claim made today by Vice-President James Cannon of the Fourth National Bank of New York in an address before the Massachusetts Teachers' association. Mr. Cannon said that there was a surprisingly lack of business training to enable young men to meet the business conditions of this country. He advocated strongly an immediate change in the college curriculum to meet modern demands.

Y.M.C.A. BUILDING

Work of Raising Fund Opens Tonight

The campaign for a fund of $150,000 for the erection of a new home for the Young Men's Christian Association will open tonight at 8.45 o'clock when the members of the various committees will gather in Prescott hall in the Runnels building.

A reception will be held between 5.45 and 6.15 o'clock after which a dinner will be held and that will be followed by speeches and the discussion of the last detail for the beginning of the work tomorrow morning.

The principal guest of the evening will be President Lucius Tuttle, of the Boston & Maine railroad, who will speak as will Frank A. Day, of the banking firm of H. L. Day & Co. of Boston.

Mr. Charles S. Ward, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who is noted as a hustler in raising funds in different cities for new buildings for the Y. M. C. A., is scheduled as one of the speakers, and in all probability he will be one of the most interesting speakers present, for it remains for him to explain in detail the method for raising the money. It was Mr. Ward who was instrumental in raising the $200,000 fund for the building in Boston, and while he is also handling the Lowell fund he will do so in conjunction with a similar enterprise to raise money for a building in Lawrence.

Frank E. Dunbar will act as toastmaster and it is understood that during the course of the banquet quite a large sum of money will be pledged. The large clock which will indicate the progress made in raising the fund was placed on the Bridge street side of the Runnels building Wednesday and as soon as money is pledged the hands of the clock will indicate the amount. When the hands make a complete circle of the dial the fund of $150,000 will have been raised.

REP. DE ARMOND

Was Buried at Butler, Mo., Today

BUTLER, Mo., Nov. 26.—Hundreds of prominent public men of Missouri and many outside the state joined the citizens of Butler today in paying respect to the memory of Congressman David A. De Armond, who was burned to death here last Tuesday in a fire that destroyed his home. Congressman De Armond died in a vain effort to save the life of his favorite grandson, David A. De Armond, 3rd. The bodies of both victims were buried in the local cemetery in one casket following simple services at the Methodist Episcopal church, where the late congressman had been a member. The burial services were in charge of the Masons. No such honor and show of affection for a departed citizen has been displayed in Missouri in many years. The coffin was banked high with floral emblems and the little church was crowded. Mourners literally blocked the streets leading to the church and hundreds followed the bodies to the cemetery and stood about the grave.

Among the mourners, members of the family of the late congressman, who had come from a distance, were Edward H. De Armond, a son of the deceased, who is an instructor at West Point, and two brothers, William De Armond of Chicago and James De Armond of Davenport, Ia.

The only missing member of the family was Lieut. George De Armond, another son, now serving with the army in the Philippines.

Other distinguished mourners besides the members of the congressional committee were Speaker Cannon, Gov. Hadley of Missouri and U. S. Senators Warner and Stone.

One of the active pall bearers was Rep. Jones of Warsaw, Va. Representatives De Armond and Jones entered congress at the same time and for years they had been intimate friends.

KILLED BY FALL

Lewiston Man's Neck Was Broken

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 26.—Aubrey O. Lothrop was instantly killed at about 12.20 o'clock yesterday morning by falling down the stairs of Trucey block on Lisbon street, the fall breaking his neck.

Romeo Parent, who, with some other young men, was in a room on the third floor, heard a heavy fall in the hall, and going out with John Casey they found Mr. Lothrop lying in a heap at the foot of the stairs, bleeding profusely from the ears and nose.

The police were at once notified, and he was taken into the guard room at the police station and physicians summoned.

Although it is thought that Mr. Lothrop was alive when he was taken into the guard room, he died almost immediately. An examination disclosed that the neck was broken between the first and second vertebrae, causing an internal hemorrhage.

There was a slight abrasion over the right ear and a smaller one over the left ear, caused by his hat being crushed down over his head.

LOSS IS $10,000

Fire in Newton Cause Heavy Damage

NEWTON, Nov. 26.—While the family were away on a Thanksgiving visit flames which broke out shortly before midnight completely gutted the large residence of Winslow G. Pierce, a coal merchant having offices at 43 Kilby street, Boston, at an early hour this morning.

The house is situated at the corner of Hunnewell avenue and Copley street. The origin of the fire is unknown, the blaze being discovered by a passerby.

who rang in an alarm summoning the department to the scene.

The firemen were successful in preventing the spreading of the flames to nearby residences, the safety of which was at first thought to be menaced, causing considerable apprehension, as the Pierce dwelling is located in a fashionable residential district. The loss to house and contents will be upward of $10,000.

WOMAN A SUICIDE

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The shallow waters of the little lake in the public garden were chosen by Annie Holden, a hotel domestic, in which to commit suicide. The body was recovered today by the police, some of whom waded almost to the spot. The young woman left a note saying that she was involved in financial difficulty and intended to take her life. After discharging some of her outer clothing she waded fifty or sixty feet out into the center of the pond and drowned herself in three feet of water.

AN AGED CITIZEN

Was Beaten and Robbed
by Negro

MERIDIAN, Miss., Nov. 26.—Morgan Chambers, the negro who was taken from Town Marshal Broadway and Deputy Joe Camp at Meridian by a mob who killed his body with bullets last night, had earlier in the day been beaten and robbed Martin Dressler, an aged citizen of Point, a small station two miles west of Meridian.

Dressler was taken to Meridian for medical treatment and the negro captured at Chukkey, a few miles further west, was taken to Meridian, where he was positively identified by the victim. After the identification Marshal Broadway and Deputy Camp started with the prisoner for the pen. On the way they were confronted by the mob who took the negro by force. Marshal had his cheek grazed by a bullet in the scuffle.

NEW TREATMENT FOR FALLING HAIR

The air is full of floating dirt, dust and disease germs, which settle in the hair and scalp. The natural oil on your head loses the dust, and in a short time you have dandruff and scalp troubles. The pores in your scalp are stopped up, the hair roots get no nourishment, and then your hair begins to fall out. It is all such a simple matter that a child can see that cleanliness is the one and only thing needed. You don't need tonics, renewers, invigorators or hair growers. You need Bitt's Head Wash, the new scientific preparation. It is made of Refined Soap, Coughin Coconut Oil, White of Eggs, Glycerine and Perfumy Acid. There are no better things than these known for cleansing the hair and scalp. Ask your doctor about it. Price 50 cents.

DIAMONDS

While it is customary to mount all large diamonds in fine hand-made mountings, many dealers use for their small stone ring settings of 10K quality and interior workmanship.

Every diamond ring in our stock is of 14K quality and finely made. We select our settings for small stones with great care, as the mounting has much to do with the beauty of the ring.

Our diamond rings at $7.50, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00 and up to $30.00 are so superior to the ordinary that even an inexperienced person can quickly see the difference.

HE WAS HUNGRY

So He Tried to Enter a House

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Miss Leona Bryse, aged 50, on returning from work early yesterday morning, discovered a burglar trying to force open the door of her home. He was using an iron bar. She approached him quietly and seized him by the throat, forcing him to the ground. A private watchman came to her assistance and then it was discovered that the burglar was a youth.

"I was so hungry, miss," said the boy. "I have no home and no friends and this is Thanksgiving. I was trying to break in here, but I only wanted something to eat." This mournful plea decided Miss Bryse. She persuaded the private watchman to discontinue the search for the burglar. The puny and gasp, Wilson, aged 18, an amateur burglar, had his Thanksgiving dinner in the early morning on the doorstep of the place he had planned to rob.

"I just couldn't do anything else," said Miss Bryse.

Your Money Back if You are Not Satisfied With the Medicine
We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to refund the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of the world's greatest research chemists. As an active agent it possesses the valuable qualities of the best known intestinal tonics as well as being particularly pleasant and prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not cause any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. They come in two sizes of packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents. Sold in Lowell only at our store, The Rexall Store, Hall & Lyon Co., 67-69 Merrimack St.
